BAND AND DRUM CORPS CONTESTS OF ELKS

CONDITIONS OF CONTEST HAVE BEEN ARRANGED

ALL BANDS AND DRUM CORPS
COMPETING MUST BE EN-TIRELY ELKS

JUDGES WILL BE THREE WELL KNOWN BAND LEADERS OF MINNESOTA

Dr. Chester R. Leech, trustee of St. Paul Lodge of Elks and chairman of the State Association bands and drum corps committee, has addressed the 24 Elks lodges of Minnesota, asking their entry in the band and drum corps contests to be held at the state convention in Brainerd. These contests will be held on the second day of the convention, Friday afternoon, August 21, at Gregory park and will attract large crowds.

The following rules will govern the band concert. Bands and drum corps must be composed entirely of Elks.

Bands must be international low pitch and play: (a) March of their own selection; (b) Overture; (c) Waltz or selection; (d) Popular number.

The judges will be three well known band leaders of the state for the band contest. In all probability A. L. Snyder of the Minnesota State Band, Fred Albrecht of the St. Paul Municipal band and W. W. Nelson of the State Orchestra of Minneapolis will act as judges.

The judging will be based on the following points: Appearance and deportment, 10 per cent; Ensemble, 35 per cent; Expression, 20 per cent; Grade of Music, 10 per cent; Interpretation, 15 per cent; Instrumentation, 10 per cent.

Drum and Bugle Corps
The drum and bugle corps will be marked on the following basis: Neatness of uniform, 15 per cent; Popularity, 10 per cent; March proficiency and appearance, 25 per cent; Grade of music and execution, 50 per cent.

Drum corps will play three selections, the first one approaching the judges' stand, the second standing before the judges and the third leaving the field.

All organizations to be eligible for prizes must participate with their organizations intact in the parade to be held on Friday, August 21. Leaders of the organizations will please get in communication with the committee on their arrival in Brainerd to arrange for the drawing for places.

Eveleth is Coming
We have had two letters so far assuring us that Eveleth lodge is coming. Here is another communication, this time from Grove Willis, editor and publisher of the "Clarion."

"Received your Elks story and gave it publicity in the Eveleth Clarion. Send me some more dope next week. Your name (Hoffbauer) looked familiar as I recall our Northern Minnesota Editorial Association meeting in Brainerd two years ago when I won a prize in your publicity contest covering Brainerd and the Lake Region.

"Eveleth is coming at least 75 strong. I am one of the two official delegates this year. We are bringing the ten piece orchestra to play for street dances. Would you care to use a cut of our beautiful new home and a story on one of the convention days, say Saturday? Will send it in if you say so."

Mr. Willis then made his room reservations. He was assured that all his Eveleth publicity and newspaper cuts mentioned will be welcome.

St. Paul Lodge Coming
Commissioner of Parks and Playgrounds Wenzel of St. Paul, who, with his wife and children, is spending a vacation at Gull Lake near the government dam, assured the Dispatch that St. Paul will be largely represented.

Mayor Arthur Nelson and family of St. Paul have a cottage at Gull lake and will attend the convention.

BUS TRAFFIC WAR DAWNS IN BUS CIRCLES

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—Possibility of a bus traffic war with recognized lines now privately operated opposing lines owned by railroads is considered imminent.

Petitions have been signed by S. A. Bollinger asking the state railroad and warehouse commission to grant a franchise for the operation of six bus lines in the state. Articles of incorporation for $200,000 will also be filed. With the granting of the petitions terminal facilities will be listed here, Bollinger said.

SEEK TO KEEP OUT THE GIRL'S CONFESSION MADE

DEFENSE ATTORNEYS FOR DOROTHY ELLINGSON STRIKE FINAL BLOW

SEEK HER ACQUITTAL OF MATRICIDE CHARGES

(By United Press)
San Francisco, Aug. 13.—Defense attorneys for Dorothy Ellingson, 17-year-old "jazz baby," accused of matricide, hoped today to strike a final blow for her acquittal through excluding from the evidence the "confession" she gave police after her arrest.

Dorothy was "persuaded" to confess killing her mother, said the opening statement of the defense. She also was temporary insane when she signed the confession, it will be contended.

Prosecutor Skillin is prepared to lengthen his case to any degree in order to get the confession into the testimony. Without the alleged confession, the case of the state against Dorothy is almost entirely circumstantial.

Druse Revolt In French Syrian Mandate

(By United Press)
London, Aug. 13.—The Central News Constantinople correspondent quoting Adana reports, says that the Druse revolt in the French-Syrian mandate is spreading. The French were reported fearing that the neighboring Arab tribesmen would also rise.

The situation at Damascus was characterized as disquieting.

enthusiased about the Elks convention in Brainerd that he will march with a "Flint, Mich." banner. If there are any more Flint Elks around, he wants them to join his section.

In the same manner all stray Elks are asked to step in the parade. A small banner can easily be procured in Brainerd, showing where the Elks comes from and they will be given honored positions in the parade, attesting to its wider-than-state representations.

Superior, Wis., is expected to send a delegation, and Omaha, Nebraska, in the past has assured Brainerd Elks they would be represented. Davenport, Iowa, has a number of Elks who spend their summers here and they will come from the Brainerd lake region for the big parade.

Close Business Houses 4 P. M.
The Brainerd Elks lodge at its last meeting August 6 voiced an appeal to the Business Men's Association that business houses close at 4 P. M. on parade day, Friday, August 21, so that merchants and clerks may be able to see the parade or march in its ranks. Many are Elks.

The Business Men's Association took cognizance of this and now asks that business houses close at 4 p. m. As matters stand in the past, nobody has ever done much business when an Elks state convention parade marched past with 20 bands and drum corps, a dozen floats and a score of marching clubs, horsemen and other attractions.

DARING PRISON BREAK, SLAYING AND WOUNDING

OREGON STATE PENITENTIARY IS SCENE LAST NIGHT

TWO PRISON GUARDS AND ONE CONVICT SLAIN IN MELEE

(By United Press)
Salem, Oregon, Aug. 13.—A daring prison break at the Oregon state penitentiary here last night resulted in the slaying of two prison guards and one convict, the wounding of another guard and convict, and the escape of three convicts. A posse of 35 officers and citizens is in pursuit of the escaped convicts still at large.

The three convicts who escaped were all under long sentences for desperate crimes and were last seen heading across the Marion-Polk bridge across the Willamette river in a commandeered automobile.

The break occurred at supper time when all but the four involved in the plot marched to the mess hall. The four remained behind and got out of sight of guards. They crawled through a hole in the wall to the upper tier of cells and then to the roof of the building. A rope dangling from the roof showed how the prisoners got down into the yard. They rushed to the arsenal, seized rifles and then escaped.

CROP CONDITION FORECAST FOR STATE AUG. 1

INCREASED PRODUCTION IN CORN, POTATOES, HAY, OATS

REPORT ISSUED BY PAUL H. KIRK, FEDERAL STATISTICIAN

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 13.—Based on crop conditions in Minnesota as of Aug. 1, compared with July 1, 1925, the forecast production of corn, potatoes, hay, oats and other grains showed marked increases, according to the report issued today by Paul H. Kirk, federal statistician for the Minnesota Crop Reporting service.

The various crops, excepting rye and wheat showed increases ranging from 500,000 bushels to 14,906,000 bushels. The increases were reported as follows:

Corn—5,251,000 bushels.
Oats—14,906,000 bushels.
Barley—2,435,000 bushels.
Potatoes—3,204,000 bushels.
Flax—540,000 bushels.
Hay—488,000 tons.

Decreases were noted in both spring and winter wheat and rye, as follows:

Spring wheat—1,568,000 bushels.
Winter wheat—540,000 bushels.
Rye—3,863,000 bushels.

"The month of July was favorable for the rapid development of the corn crop in most sections of the state and the condition Aug. 1 was 83 per cent of normal or two points higher than July 1," the report states. "The Aug. 1 condition forecasts a production of 145,853,000 bushels, compared with 126,336,000 bushels harvested in 1924. With August the critical corn month as far as filling is concerned, conditions may change. Higher production than forecast will result with favorable weather, including ample rain.

"With the oat crop 89 per cent of normal forecasting a production of 164,846,000 bushels, conditions are promising. The forecast production is 19,000,000 bushels in excess of the five year average.

"Excessive moisture in north and west central parts of Minnesota, coupled with hot weather, caused rust and scab, lowering prospects

London, Aug. 13.—A volcano on the fruitful island of Santorin, according to the Exchange Telegraph Athens correspondent, has become active after being dormant since 1866.

The population in panic is evacuating the region.

The eruptions are now in their third day. Earthquake shocks at Smyrna 10 days ago are believed by experts to have been the cause of volcanic activity.

MINNESOTA OCCUPIES ALL WINNIPEG

CITY YIELDS SELF WITHOUT A STRUGGLE TO AMERICAN LEGION

COLERAINE POST BAND AND DRUM CORPS HEAD THE PROCESSION

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—Minnesota's occupation of Winnipeg last night was a peaceful one. The city yielded itself without a struggle to the 1,700 smiling, singing invaders wearing the American Legion badge and not only surrendered, but lined the streets all the way from the Canadian Pacific station to the armory to give the conquerors welcome. All the veterans' headquarters were raided and the raiders were received with open arms.

The zero hour was between 6:45 and 7 p. m. when the American Legion came over the top at two points—the Union and the Canadian Pacific depots.

Major General Ketchum and his staff with Mayor Ralph Webb and others took the salute at the city hall. It was a long route to the armory, but the visitors made the best of it.

Automobiles had been provided for the members of the American Legion Auxiliary, but a great many of the women preferred to march. Comments on the length of Winnipeg's streets heard afterward were caustic. The band of the Coleraine post and the various drum corps, as well as the pipe band headed the procession and made them step lively.

QUESTION MOTORIST ON DRUGS FOUND IN CAR

St. Cloud, Aug. 13.—Cloyde Cordrey, Indianapolis, is being questioned today by St. Cloud police concerning several bottles of narcotics found in his possession.

Mr. Cordrey was released Tuesday from a St. Cloud hospital where he has been suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident Sunday. He was pinned underneath his automobile when it ran off the road east of St. Cloud. The narcotics were found in his possession at that time.

4 APPOINTMENTS TO STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE BOARD

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Four appointments to the state teachers' college board were announced today by Governor Christianson.

The new appointments are R. H. Schumaker, Bemidji, to replace A. P. White, resigned, until 1927, and Alvah Eastman, St. Cloud, replacing B. O. Schaud.

Reappointments were S. H. Samson, Winona, and I. N. Tompkins, Mankato.

for spring wheat 15 per cent to 71 per cent of normal. The forecast production of 22,800,000 bushels is a 12,000,000 decrease from the 1924 yield."

Other grains are reported in good condition.

INCREASED DOPE SALES CHECKED UP BY FEDERAL MEN

MAKE EFFORT TO UNTANGLE WEB OF UNDERWORLD INTRIGUE

NATIONWIDE DOPE RING EXPOSURE IN CHICAGO TO BE MADE

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—Increased dope sales during the past month are being checked up by federal narcotic agents here in an effort to unravel a tangled web of underworld intrigue unearthed by a nationwide dope ring exposure in Chicago.

The maze of secret communications between drug smugglers and wholesalers has carried the dope surplus made possible by lax enforcement in Chicago into the northwest, authorities conclude.

While narcotic sales are admittedly on the increase, northwest federal agents are not under observation as Lieutenants of Colonel William Beach, Chicago district chief now under arrest for trafficking in narcotics.

More cases than have been handled in the past ten months have come to the attention of the northwest division in the last thirty days, Dr. H. H. Wouters, northwest divisional chief said today.

While Chicago tongs are reported ready for battle, Chinese in the Twin Cities declared all is quiet here.

TOLL BRIDGE AT HUDSON, WIS., NOW UNDER FIRE

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT AND WAR DEPARTMENT OPEN ATTACKS

HUDSON MUST ELIMINATE TOLL FEE OR TRAFFIC IS ROUTED

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Alleged "Jesse James" tactics presented in the form of a toll bridge on tourists crossing the Minnesota line at Hudson, Wis., are taboo.

Officials of the state highway department and the war department have opened attacks on the plan which netted the Wisconsin town $70,000 last year.

Hudson must eliminate the toll bridge or face the possibility of re-routed traffic, condemnation proceedings or a parallel bridge. This was the edict issued today by Chas. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner.

Profits of the toll bridge, originally costing $24,000, have been applied to municipal expenses, reducing taxes in the city.

Are Temporarily Released From Marketing Contracts

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Members of the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange today were temporarily released from marketing contracts.

The action releasing the members from their contracts to sell potato crops through the exchange follows recommendations made to the board of trustees of the organization by the various sub-district bodies.

Each of the 13,000 members of the exchange will receive a letter this week offering to release the individual members from their contracts for pool sales through the exchange. It is expected that a majority of the members will accept the offer.

KLAN, ANTI-KLAN USE TEAR BOMBS AND OTHER WEAPONS

(By United Press)

Reading, Mass., Aug. 13.—Following a two-hour clash here between Klan and anti-Klansmen in which tear gas bombs, revolvers, stone showers, clubs and hand to hand encounters figured, state police early today took command of the situation and dispersed the opposing factions, arresting 15.

Two alleged Klansmen were arrested and held on charges of carrying dangerous weapons. They are alleged to have drawn clubs when a state trooper took them into custody.

QUIZ OF BORDER TOURIST BUREAU BEGUN BY STATE

MIKE HOLM STARTS PROBE OF SCHEME TO DIVERT TRAFFIC

S. P. A. DIRECTORS MAP ACTION TO COMBAT MISREPRESENTATION AT STATE LINE

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Mike Holm, secretary of state, today started an investigation of the state line bureau of the Minnesota Tourist service at the Minnesota-Wisconsin boundary.

"This bureau, by aid of misleading signs which made tourists believe it was an agency of the state of Minnesota, has been attempting to divert traffic from St. Paul to Minneapolis."

"If it is found true that the bureau has used application blanks furnished by my office in a scheme to advertise any one locality, the privilege of using the blanks will be taken away, said Mr. Holm. "These blanks are supplied to banks, stores and other agencies to aid the state in registering nonresidential motorists. But the blanks are always given out with the understanding that there will be no advertising scheme in connection with their use."

Mr. Holm was quoted in The Daily News Tuesday as saying that he would do nothing to stop the misrepresentation at the bureau on the Minnesota side of the Hudson bridge. He explained today that he was misunderstood and that he merely said that hundreds of agencies have the blank applications, and that the state had no other way of securing the registration.

St. Paul Association directors met Tuesday to discuss the activities of the Minnesota Tourist service as exposed by The Daily News. The misrepresentation carried out by signs almost identical with those of the state highway commission was bitterly denounced and a committee appointed to make an investigation. Commissioner Babcock was present and he also denounced the system of handing out propaganda. He denied, however, that his department has any way of stopping the practice. The S. P. A. committee conferred with Mr. Holm yesterday.

The latter explained that no permits are issued from the roadside booth, but that official applications for nonresident permits are signed here.

REWARD OFFERED FOR APPREHENSION OF WOMAN SLAYER

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—A reward of $500 has been offered for the apprehension of four murderers wanted in connection with the slaying of Mary Karish, aged resident of Biwabik, St. Louis county, July 21st.

Governor Theodore Christianson today issued a proclamation announcing the reward would be paid to any person furnishing information leading to the arrest or conviction of the men.

The fugitives have been at liberty since the crime and no trace of them has been found.

PASSENGER AND TRAFFIC MEN ARE INVITED

RAIL MEN TO BE GIVEN AUTO TOUR OF OUR LAKE REGION AUGUST 19

FOLLOWED BY DINNER FOR ALL INTERESTED AT BREEZY POINT LODGE

The Brainerd Lions club has set in motion a Brainerd lake region advertising campaign, which in the minds of all who have heard of the plan is to be one of the biggest things of its kind ever attempted in this section.

Speakers from outside the city, who have visited this lake region and later addressed the Lions club, have without an exception dwelt strongly upon the possibilities of this great summer playground but have criticised local people for not appreciating these natural opportunities and for not advertising them to the rest of the world.

Statements have been made by many visitors that if the Brainerd lake region were in some localities it would be more popular than the majority of vacation districts in the United States.

The Lions club, realizing the truth of these arguments, has planned a dinner to be held on next Wednesday evening, August 19th, at Breezy Point Lodge to which all who are interested in the development of the local summer playgrounds are invited.

Honor guests at this big dinner are to be railway officials from all roads bringing tourists into Minnesota. The club has extended invitations to these officials and has already received acceptances from passenger traffic officers from the Northwestern Railway, the Burlington, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad.

Here's a Passenger Agent Lion
The letter from W. L. Mansfield, general passenger agent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, is especially encouraging and is quoted in part herewith:

"As a member of the St. Paul Lions club, I am particularly proud that your club has sponsored this move to get the railroad men better in touch with the lake region around Brainerd, and I am sure that the results will be far beyond your expectation, as our own railroad has a most productive territory around Sioux City, Ia., Omaha and Lincoln, Neb., and the South and with proper literature and co-operation the large volume of tourists we bring in could be greatly increased and possibly doubled. I can assure you of our best efforts. I have also observed that we bring in many tourists from Milwaukee, Chicago and the East to the Minnesota resorts, and after an inspection trip to your locality we should be in a better position to give information about your playground. I appreciate your invitation and am looking forward to a very pleasant visit."

Many Rail Officials Coming
Without an exception, the rail officials are writing that they will arrive in Brainerd on the afternoon train Wednesday. The Lions club has planned an automobile tour of the nearby lakes, stopping at the various resorts and ending at Breezy Point lodge in time for the dinner at seven o'clock in the evening.

It is hoped that Brainerd business men will see the value of this get-together dinner with the railway officials, and will join with the Lions club in the Breezy Point meeting on Wednesday evening. Tickets for the dinner have been printed and can be procured by all who desire to attend by applying to any member of the club. It is expected that so great will be the interest locally that the business men will be more than anxious to procure tickets, and will secure them from the Lions club members.

Dr. Chester R. Leech, trustee of St. Paul Lodge of Elks and chairman of the State Association bands and drum corps committee, has addressed the 24 Elks lodges of Minnesota, asking their entry in the band and drum corps contests to be held at the state convention in Brainerd. These contests will be held on the second day of the convention, Friday afternoon, August 21, at Gregory park and will attract large crowds.

The following rules will govern the band concert. Bands and drum corps must be composed entirely of Elks.

Bands must be international low pitch and play: (a) March of their own selection; (b) Overture; (c) Waltz or selection; (d) Popular number.

The judges will be three well known band leaders of the state for the band contest. In all probability A. L. Snyder of the Minnesota State Band, Fred Albrecht of the St. Paul Municipal band and W. W. Nelson of the State Orchestra of Minneapolis will act as judges.

The judging will be based on the following points: Appearance and deportment, 10 per cent; Ensemble, 35 per cent; Expression, 20 per cent; Grade of Music, 10 per cent; Interpretation, 15 per cent; Instrumentation, 10 per cent.

Drum and Bugle Corps
The drum and bugle corps will be marked on the following basis: Neatness of uniform, 15 per cent; Popularity, 10 per cent; March proficiency and appearance, 25 per cent; Grade of music and execution, 50 per cent.

Drum corps will play three selections, the first one approaching the judges' stand, the second standing before the judges and the third leaving the field.

All organizations to be eligible for prizes must participate with their organizations intact in the parade to be held on Friday, August 21. Leaders of the organizations will please get in communication with the committee on their arrival in Brainerd to arrange for the drawing for places.

INCREASED DOPE SALES CHECKED UP BY FEDERAL MEN

MAKE EFFORT TO UNTANGLE
WEB OF UNDERWORLD INTRIGUE

NATIONWIDE DOPE RING EXPO-SURE IN CHICAGO TO BE MADE

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—Increased dope sales during the past month are being checked up by federal narcotic agents here in an effort to unravel a tangled web of underworld intrigue unearthed by a nationwide dope ring exposure in Chicago.

The maze of secret communications between drug smugglers and wholesalers has carried the dope surplus made possible by lax enforcement in Chicago into the northwest, authorities conclude.

While narcotic sales are admittedly on the increase, northwest federal agents are not under observation as Lieutenants of Colonel William Beach, Chicago district chief now under arrest for trafficking in narcotics.

More cases than have been handled in the past ten months have come to the attention of the northwest division in the last thirty days, Dr. H. H. Wouters, northwest divisional chief said today.

While Chicago tongues are reported ready for battle, Chinese in the Twin Cities declared all is quiet here.

TOLL BRIDGE AT HUDSON, WIS., NOW UNDER FIRE

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT AND WAR DEPARTMENT
OPEN ATTACKS

HUDSON MUST ELIMINATE TOLL
FEE OR TRAFFIC IS RE-ROUTED

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Alleged "Jesse James" tactics presented in the form of a toll bridge on tourists crossing the Minnesota line at Hudson, Wis., are taboo.

Officials of the state highway department and the war department have opened attacks on the plan which netted the Wisconsin town $70,000 last year.

Hudson must eliminate the toll bridge or face the possibility of re-routed traffic, condemnation proceedings or a parallel bridge. This was the edict issued today by Chas. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner.

Profits of the toll bridge, originally costing $24,000, have been applied to municipal expenses, reducing taxes in the city.

Are Temporarily Released From Marketing Contracts

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Members of the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange today were temporarily released from marketing contracts.

The action releasing the members from their contracts to sell potato crops through the exchange follows recommendations made to the board of trustees of the organization by the various sub-district bodies.

Each of the 13800 members of the exchange will receive a letter this week offering to release the individual members from their contracts for pool sales through the exchange. It is expected that a majority of the members will accept the offer.

KLAN, ANTI-KLAN USE TEAR BOMBS AND OTHER WEAPONS

(By United Press)
Reading, Mass., Aug. 13.—Following a two-hour clash here between Klan and anti-Klansmen in which tear gas bombs, revolvers, stone showers, clubs and hand to hand encounters figured, state police early today took command of the situation and dispersed the opposing factions, arresting 15.

Two alleged Klansmen were arrested and held on charges of carrying dangerous weapons. They are alleged to have drawn clubs when a state trooper took them into custody.

QUIZ OF BORDER TOURIST BUREAU BEGUN BY STATE

MIKE HOLM STARTS PROBE OF SCHEME TO DIVERT TRAFFIC

S. P. A. DIRECTORS MAP ACTION
TO COMBAT MISREPRESENTATION AT STATE LINE

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Mike Holm, secretary of state, today started an investigation of the state line bureau of the Minnesota Tourist service at the Minnesota-Wisconsin boundary.

This bureau, by aid of misleading signs which made tourists believe it was an agency of the state of Minnesota, has been attempting to divert traffic from St. Paul to Minneapolis.

"If it is found true that the bureau has used application blanks furnished by my office in a scheme to advertise any one locality, the privilege of using the blanks will be taken away, said Mr. Holm. "These blanks are supplied to banks, stores and other agencies to aid the state in registering nonresidential motorists. But the blanks are always given out with the understanding that there will be no advertising scheme in connection with their use."

Mr. Holm was quoted in The Daily News Tuesday as saying that he would do nothing to stop the misrepresentation at the bureau on the Minnesota side of the Hudson bridge. He explained today that he was misunderstood and that he merely said that hundreds of agencies have the blank applications, and that the state had no other way of securing the registration.

St. Paul Association directors met Tuesday to discuss the activities of the Minnesota Tourist service as exposed by The Daily News. The misrepresentation carried out by signs almost identical with those of the state highway commission was bitterly denounced and a committee appointed to make an investigation. Commissioner Babcock was present and he also denounced the system of handing out propaganda. He denied, however, that his department has any way of stopping the practice. The S. P. A. committee conferred with Mr. Holm yesterday.

The latter explained that no permits are issued from the roadside booth, but that official applications for nonresident permits are signed here.

REWARD OFFERED FOR APPREHENSION OF WOMAN SLAYER

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—A reward of $500 has been offered for the apprehension of four murderers wanted in connection with the slaying of Mary Karish, aged resident of Biwabik, St. Louis county, July 21st.

Governor Theodore Christianson today issued a proclamation announcing the reward would be paid to any person furnishing information leading to the arrest or conviction of the men.

The fugitives have been at liberty since the crime and no trace of them has been found.

PASSENGER AND TRAFFIC MEN ARE INVITED

RAIL MEN TO BE GIVEN AUTO
TOUR OF OUR LAKE REGION
AUGUST 19

FOLLOWED BY DINNER FOR ALL INTERESTED AT BREEZY POINT LODGE

The Brainerd Lions club has set in motion a Brainerd lake region advertising campaign, which in the minds of all who have heard of the plan is to be one of the biggest things of its kind ever attempted in this section.

Speakers from outside the city, who have visited this lake region and later addressed the Lions club, have without an exception dwelt strongly upon the possibilities of this great summer playground but have criticised local people for not appreciating these natural opportunities and for not advertising them to the rest of the world.

Statements have been made by many visitors that if the Brainerd lake region were in some localities it would be more popular than the majority of vacation districts in the United States.

The Lions club, realizing the truth of these arguments, has planned a dinner to be held on next Wednesday evening, August 19th, at Breezy Point Lodge to which all who are interested in the development of the local summer playgrounds are invited.

Honor guests at this big dinner are to be railway officials from all roads bringing tourists into Minnesota. The club has extended invitations to these officials and has already received acceptances from passenger traffic officers from the Northwestern Railway, the Burlington, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad.

Here's a Passenger Agent Lion. The letter from W. L. Mansfield, general passenger agent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, is especially encouraging and is quoted in part herewith:

"As a member of the St. Paul Lions club, I am particularly proud that your club has sponsored this move to get the railroad men better in touch with the lake region around Brainerd, and I am sure that the results will be far beyond your expectation, as our own railroad has a most productive territory around Sioux City, Ia., Omaha and Lincoln, Neb., and the South and with proper literature and co-operation the large volume of tourists we bring in could be greatly increased and possibly doubled. I can assure you of our best efforts. I have also observed that we bring in many tourists from Milwaukee, Chicago and the East to the Minnesota resorts, and after an inspection trip to your locality we should be in a better position to give information about your playground. I appreciate your invitation and am looking forward to a very pleasant visit."

Many Rail Officials Coming. Without an exception, the rail officials are writing that they will arrive in Brainerd on the afternoon train Wednesday. The Lions club has planned an automobile tour of the nearby lakes, stopping at the various resorts and ending at Breezy Point lodge in time for the dinner at seven o'clock in the evening.

It is hoped that Brainerd business men will see the value of this get-together dinner with the railway officials, and will join with the Lions club in the Breezy Point meeting on Wednesday evening. Tickets for the dinner have been printed and can be procured by all who desire to attend by applying to any member of the club. It is expected that so great will be the interest locally that the business men will be more than anxious to procure tickets, and will secure them from the Lions club members.

FIVE BUS LINES

SEEK PERMITS

NORTHLAND, JEFFERSON, INTERSTATE, MESABA AND MOTOR TRUCK COMPANIES

Minneapolis, Aug. 13—Notices that applications for bus operating permits had been filed with the state railroad and warehouse commission by five Minnesota bus companies were received by A. P. Erickson, county auditor, Wednesday.

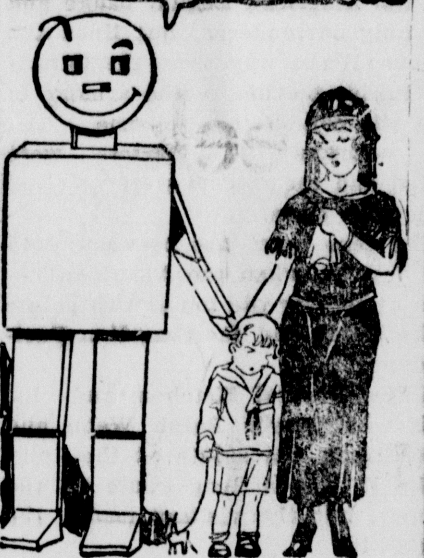

The companies, all of which are now operating, and which filed their requests for permanent permits under the bus regulatory act passed at the last session of the legislature, are the Northland Transportation Co., Jefferson Highway Transportation Co., the Interstate Transportation Co., the Mesaba Transportation Co., and the Motor Truck Service Co.

Of the five companies, the Jefferson is the largest, its application being for permits for 12 routes, totaling nearly 2,000 miles. The Northland, with 11 routes, is second, and is followed by the Mesaba Co., which operates seven routes over 650 miles on the Iron Range and west therefrom. The Interstate Co. has five routes, over 700 miles, and the Motor Truck Service Co. is applying for permission to operate from Minneapolis to Staples, 164 miles.

GIRL WANTS TO ENTER CON-VENT TO ESCAPE MAD-HOUSE

New York, Aug. 13. — Obsessed with the fear that she is to be committed to a madhouse, Mary Spas sought seclusion in the Astoria home that she left a week ago, to assume the role of a modern Cinderella.

No longer the foster daughter of Millionaire Edward W. Browning, she has gone back to her Bohemian parents.

Instead of a future filled with over-stuffed wardrobes, Rolls-Royce cars and speed boats, Mary now looks to the drab walls of a convent for solace and plans to become a nun.

In a telephone conversation with a representative of the United Press, the demoted Cinderella said:

"I've got to get away. I've got to go somewhere. They're trying to send me to the crazy house. That's why I was afraid after the adoption was canceled.

"Monday night I tried to get into a convent in New Jersey. They would not take me because they said I was too excited, and did not know my own mind. They told me to come back later if I still wanted to go into a convent. That's what I intend to do.

"My mother and father want me to stay at home. My father said this was the place for me, but I could not after all this has happened. I want to be left alone."

As Cinderella, Mary's voice was sweet and subdued. But on this occasion she talked excitedly and incoherently. She was asked what document Browning had requested her to sign in the corridor of a Broadway hotel yesterday? Mary evaded the question, however.

Browning, however, says both Mr. and Mrs. John Spas, Mary's parents, have signed papers repudiating statements attributed to their daughter and syndicated by a newspaper. He said Mary had verbally repudiated the statement. She had not signed a statement of repudiation, Browning added.

Browning announced that he was arranging through his attorney to start criminal libel action.

"The published articles to which I refer are too utterly absurd. The charges they contain are so patently fictitious that I think we already have a strong case," he said.

An automobile loaded with feminine finery will stop at Mary's home today. The millionaire who was her fairy godfather for a week has decided that Mary shall have all the dresses, shoes, hats and jewelry purchased during their one and only shopping tour through 5th ave.

$500,000 CRIMINAL LIBEL SUIT DAWNS

New York, Aug. 13.—Having abdicated the throne on which he sat for a week as fairy godfather, Edward Browning, millionaire, today promised to tell the "inside story" of the Cinderella race which 21-year-old Mary Spas won and lost.

Browning and his attorney have prepared a statement on the sensational case which the wealthy realtor says he will use as the base for the $500,000 criminal libel suit against the New York newspaper that is publishing the alleged story of Mary's adventures as Cinderella.

While Browning was preparing to open his counter-attack, Mary remained barricaded in the humble Astoria residence to which she returned after being stripped of her Cinderella frills and furbelows.

BOY OF 10 IS KIDNAPER MARK

JOSEPH HIRSCHBEIN OF CHICAGO
CLOSELY GUARDED BY PARENTS

(By United Press)

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Joseph Hirschbein, 10, was closely guarded in the apartment house of his parents at a fashionable South Side hotel following threats of kidnaping by a gang which demanded $5,000 of the boy's father, M. L. Hirschbein.

Early this morning, Hirschbein accompanied by police kept an appointment with members of the gang at a lonely spot near the South Side railroad tracks, but no one appeared to meet him.

Threats of kidnaping were made in two telephone calls in which he was told to bring $5,000 tightly rolled in papers.

"If you bring the police, we will get your boy anyhow. Our gang is just that big," Hirschbein was told.

HAIRCUT PRICES ARE SLASHED IN BARBER WAR

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—A barbers' war is on in St. Paul.

Union shops in the Dayton's Bluff district have already slashed their prices to meet those established by one nonunion shop, and are operating outside of the union schedule of hours.

The move has been sanctioned by the union.

With haircuts selling at 35 cents each and other tonorial activities retailing at proportionate prices, the shops of the Dayton's Bluff district were swarming today with residents eager to take advantage of the price before the barbers changed their minds.

Possibility of a city-wide reduction, temporarily, was seen by some.

No official statement relative to the price cut was obtainable at headquarters of Journeymen Barbers' Local No. 31, official union organization in St. Paul.

"The temporary price cuts are a part of the program to give St. Paul a real barber system by forcing the shops to offer the best in service, sanitation and satisfaction," one union barber said.

"One shop in the East 7th street district, a nonunion shop, has been operating 13 to 14 hours daily and maintaining no price schedule whatever—getting what it can.

"In this shop the employed barbers work on a commission basis entirely. They are not union men.

"In union shops, barbers are not getting fabulous salaries. They are receiving 38 cents an hour for their work—lowest wage scale of any unionized specialists.

"Union shops cannot furnish satisfactory service to the public at less than the standard prices now in effect."

PRINCE OF WALES STYLES ARBITER FOR BRAZIL MEN

(By United Press)

Rio de Janeiro, Aug. 13.—Although the Prince of Wales does not intend to visit Brazil on his South American tour, simply because he has not as yet received any official invitation to stop off at Brazilian ports when he comes this way, Brazilian men are dressed for the occasion in event His Royal Highness gets a bid later on and decides to call in at Rio.

After Wales' last visit to the United States and the tremendous change in the cut of men's clothing resulting from that visit, Brazilians have also left the tight fitting trousers and corset-shaped coats for the wide and baggy trousers and short rounded coats long since so popular in England.

Although the English gentleman's cut of suits was known to Brazilians for years previous it was not until Americans followed suit after the last trip of Wales to the United States, and American films showed what Americans were wearing, that the Brazilian men fell in line and began cutting their breeches wider and their coats roomier and shorter.

Now, however, that American films have shown Brazilians what the American man-about-town is wearing, the Brazilian is not considered well dressed who wears anything else but the Prince's own as introduced into Brazil by way of the United States.

RAIL-BUS ARGUMENT

THE rail-bus argument is engrossing the attention of many towns. At bus hearings conducted by the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission arguments are advanced by both sides.

Recently a hearing of representatives of railroads and busses was held at Owatonna and the chamber of commerce supplied the rostrum. At the close of the talks, the Owatonna chamber of commerce refused to take any action on the request of railways to act toward the halting of bus competition, which the roads declare are cutting their passenger traffic to a point where all trains run at a loss.

The chamber decided on what we regard as a policy of "watchful waiting." They decided that support of one or the other side of the question was a matter for individual consideration.

Nevertheless, we are of opinion that this rail-bus controversy affects every town that has the service of both. Competition may become so ruinous that rails may be pulled up. No one can compel a public utility to continue service when it can prove that it is conducting its services at a loss.

The railroad is faced with the competition of the busses, as well as the individual automobile owner. The busses, as has been asserted by some of its spokesmen, are more concerned with combatting the individual car owner. The bus men claim they want to make their bus service so convenient and attractive that the individual car owner will leave his car in his garage and take to riding on the bus as being a cheaper mode of conveyance than driving his own car.

The short haul passenger business of the railways is being seriously affected and that effect is noticeable at the union depots in St. Paul and Minneapolis, where many trains have been taken off the time tables.

The busses are endeavoring to give prompt daily service and by their showing make strive to secure a permanent place in the sun of public opinion. The railways in the early days faced a river and canal transportation competition, but this bus competition with its hitherto flexible routes, its comparatively cheap fares and its local time tables is a problem in short haul passenger competition that offers some difficult points for the railroads to analyze and to overcome.

MODERN HANDWRITING

THE handwriting on the wall in Biblical days was of the most legible kind. The handwriting of these modern days, however, is enough to make a man lose his temper. Some people seem to delight in evolving a script which can hardly be deciphered. And the average man glories in a signature which only an experienced teller can read. We know a local man whose signature looks like a dust cloud in summer time.

And the young folks, many of them, have a penmanship all their own. Generally speaking, says the Chicago Tribune, we are sympathetic with the young folks of the land. That is to say, neither in their dress nor manners do they cause us undue alarm. Their penmanship, however, is something quite different and altogether blameworthy. It's not entirely their fault, but rather, we suspect, the fault of a system of writing which was introduced into the schools some eight or ten years ago.

Penmanship can have only two virtues: Legibility and beauty. On a scale of 100, the new scrawling rates 34 in legibility and something less than zero esthetically. We might bear with the youngsters, however, were there any improvement as they advance toward maturity. There is none.

Something shapeless in the shaping of their letters appears to be at the root of the matter. The hand of a young lady old enough to vote and smoke is as immature as that of a third grader. She can't conceal her deficiency behind a screen of unnecessary strokes.

At its copybook best, the new writing is rococo; at its very general worst, it is rococo-in-ruins. It looks to us like a conspiracy on the part of the typewriter manufacturers.

WAR has been declared on the itinerant bell ringer and the campaign has been espoused by the Anoka Herald, Bemidji Daily Pioneer, the Clay County Herald of Hawley, THE BRAINERD DISPATCH and other newspapers.

As has been stated by THE DISPATCH, one should remember that no criticism is leveled against the soliciting of local merchants or local agents, who may put on sales campaigns, or the solicitation of farmers who wish to dispose of garden and other produce.

The criticism is leveled at the out of town agent and canvasser, whose success in his pursuit takes away legitimate business from an established business man in Brainerd.

THE DISPATCH has printed two-color cards, free for the asking, which may be placed on front or back door, giving notice that "the occupants of this home buy only of Brainerd merchants and Crow Wing county farmers. Please do not waste our time and yours."

JOURNALISM IN THE OLD DAYS

JOURNALISM in the old days had a wide latitude and the editors expressed their opinions freely, backing them up with fist fights, if necessary. Society nowadays does not tolerate such ethics.

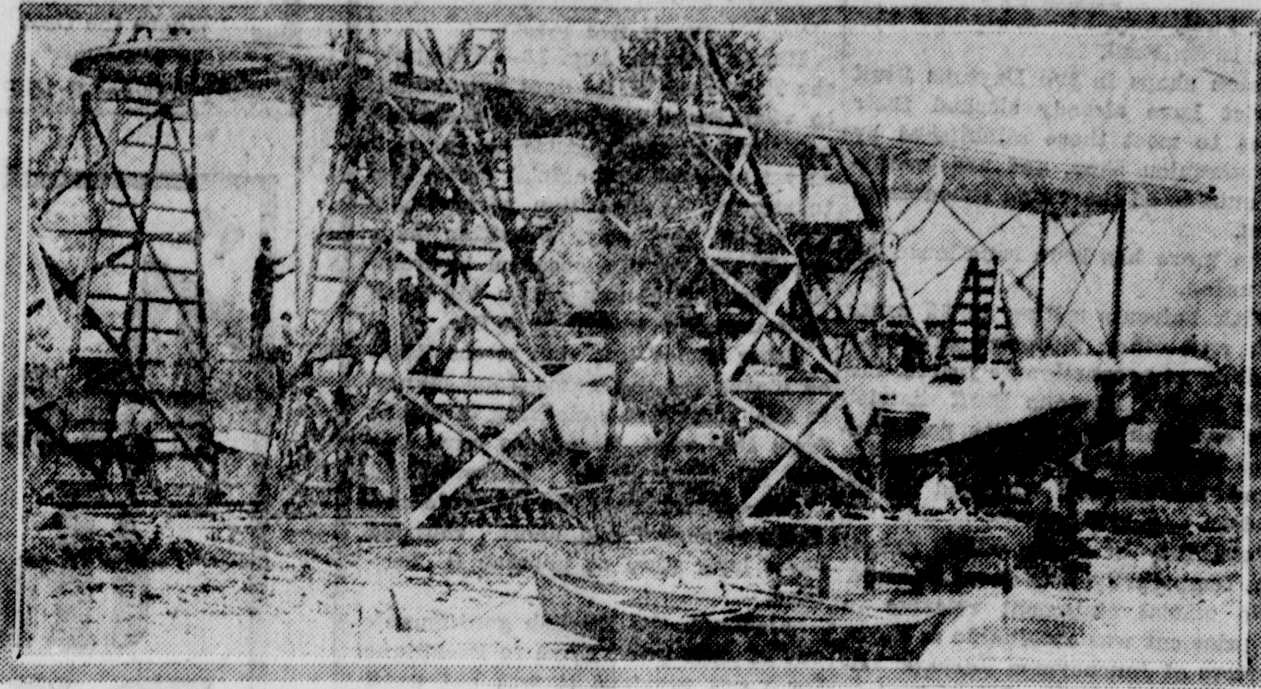

In the old days in Brainerd one editor called the other a monkey and ran a circus out of a monkey to embellish his article. A husky lumberjack one time started out to "lick" Col. Stivers. The colonel knew he was no match physically for the hulking lumberjack sprawling in the office chair.

He motioned him to a seat near the stove and soon the warm air got in his work and the son of the forest fell asleep and forgot all about his mission of destruction.

In the old days journalism was too much a personal matter. With few men on the paper, an editor's personality tinged the whole paper. Nowadays many men and many interests make up a paper and the personal tone is lost.

THE best corners in town are being used for filling stations, says the Mahanome Pioneer, following a custom established long before the automobile was discovered.

ASSEMBLING GIANT NAVY PLANE THAT WILL PARTICIPATE IN FLIGHT FROM SAN FRANCISCO TO HONOLULU

Above is shown the Navy's latest seaplane, the PB-1, which will take part in the flight across the Pacific this month from San Francisco to Honolulu. The plane was built at the Boeing plant at Seattle and then taken to Sand Point Field on the shores of Lake Washington for its trial flights and tests.

OH, MAMIE!

He was a somewhat poetic young fellow and she was "beautiful but dumb." They met at a party and he was prompted to express his admiration.

"Do you know," he told her, "you look like a bit of rare old tapestry?"

"Indeed! Well, you're not so snappy looking yourself!" she angrily retorted.—Boston Transcript.

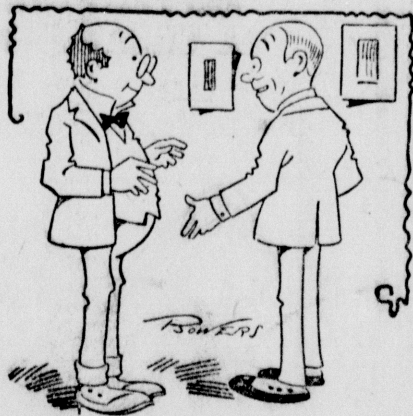

Home, Sweet Home

"I am satisfied on one thing at last. I found where my husband spends his evenings," remarked Mrs. Gadabout.

"You don't say so, dear; how did you find out?" questioned the excited Mrs. Gossip.

"I stayed at home one evening last week and found him there," answered the satisfied lady.—Arkansas Utility News.

True Eloquence

"Have you prepared your sermon for tomorrow?" asked our southern friend of his man-of-all-work, who was also preacher at the African Methodist church.

"No, sub," said he; "I don't have to. Sometimes I preach from a text. Then I got to study. Tomorrow, I jest preach from the extemporaneum."—Public Opinion.

Grandpa's Rating

"That clock is very old—it's a grandfather's clock," she informed him, as she showed him over the house.

"That isn't a grandfather's clock; it's a cuckoo clock," he contradicted. "We-e-eil," she hesitated, "you didn't know grandfather like I did."—American Legion Weekly.

GOING HIM ONE BETTER

"Son, I'll jist knock off six strokes from my score and I'll slip you 75 cents. Get me?"

"Sure! I'll make it an even dozen for a dollar."

LIONS SPONSOR NOVEL LAKE REGION ADVERTISING

bers without delay, in order that Breezy Point may be notified of the number that are to be served at this dinner.

Show Region at Height of Activity
This is an opportunity to present the possibilities of the local lake region while it is at the height of its summer season. Brainerd, too, will be at its best, being decorated for the Elks convention which starts the next day. In all, it is held to be the most opportune time for holding this dinner, and a very favorable impression will no doubt be made upon the honor guests.

It is one of the purposes of the dinner to induce the railways entering Minnesota, to strongly advertise the Brainerd lake region in their literature, in the same way that Yellowstone Park, Glacier Park and other summer playgrounds are featured. This would induce many to come to Brainerd from all sections of the United States, people who have never heard of this particular vacation-land before. Advertising of this kind, when once started, will carry itself on from the weight of its own results, it is believed, and will put Brainerd on the tourist's map in large letters.

Benefits of Inestimable Value
The benefits to be derived from Wednesday's meeting, especially to Brainerd merchants and resort owners in this vicinity, cannot be estimated. If a large, representative number of business men attend this dinner at Breezy Point, it will show the railway officials that this city is deeply interested in the matter, and will have a great deal of weight in influencing them to include this city in their advertising. If the response from the business men is lukewarm, and only a few greet the visitors, the desired results will not be forthcoming, and the Lions' effort to promote one of this territory's great resources will have failed.

Worse

"They have never spoken since they took part in private theatricals," said the sharp-tongued miss.

"I see; professional jealousy."

"Oh, dear, no; something far worse. It's amateur jealousy."

His Own Selection

"So you claim to be a literary man?"

"Yes, sir; I wrote that book, 'A Dozen Ways of Making a Living.'"

"And yet you are begging!"

"Yes, sir; that was one of the ways."

Hard to Understand

"My wife doesn't understand me."

"Neither do I half the time," said the stenographer.

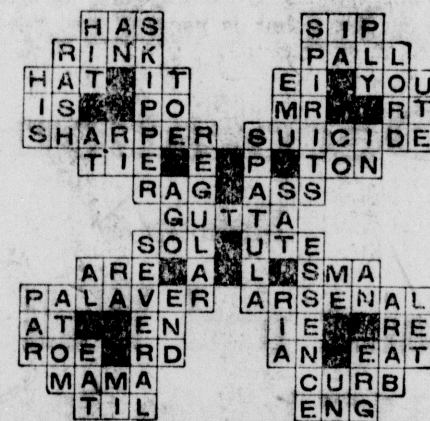

Then he started his dictation in a huff.

Hen-Pecked

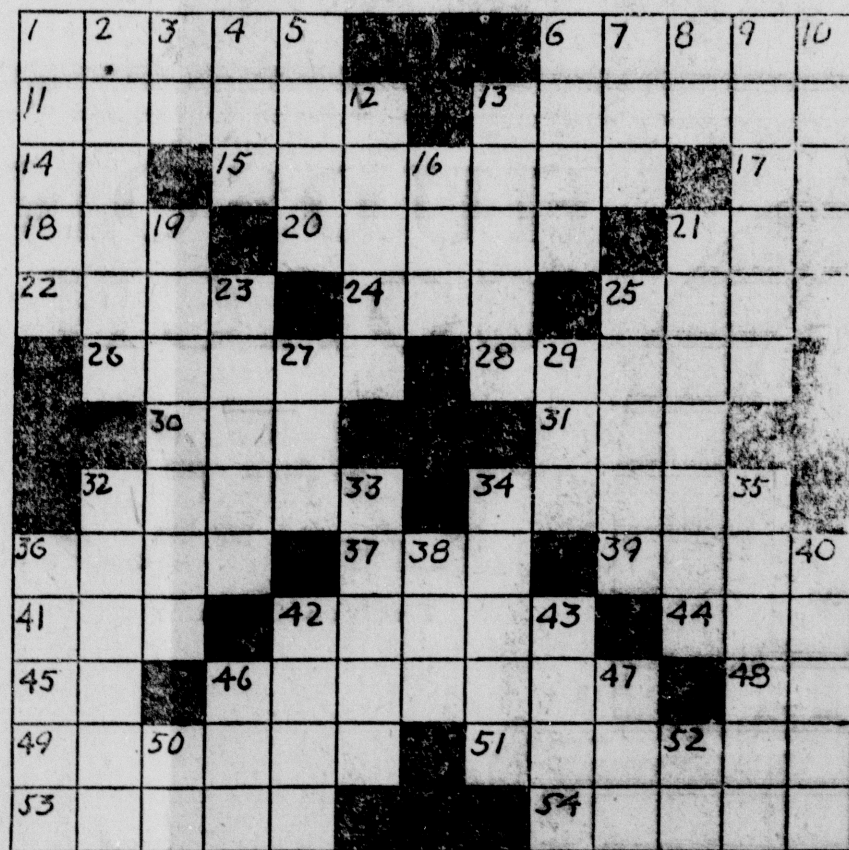

Hinks—How come that he has such a homely looking lot of girls working in his office?

Jinks—His wife insists on hiring all his help.

HERBERT HOOVER TELLS STORY OF "PRICE FIXING"

GRAIN REPORT SHOWS WAR PRICE FIXING SAVED FARMERS

ALLIES PLANNED POOLING PUR- CHASES TO BREAK MARKET

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Aug. 12.—After eight years of silence, Herbert Hoover has at last come forward with the inside story of the fixing of the price of wheat at $2.20 per bushel during the war.

The tale, which is unfolded in a foreword to a final report on the activities of the United States Grain Corporation prepared by Dr. Frank M. Surface, economist, is amazing in that it discloses—

1. That the Allies had combined in 1917 to buy wheat from American farmers at not more than $1.50 per bushel.

2. That instead of being deprived of huge war time profits by the government's intervention, as the farmers have believed ever since, they actually were saved from "complete disaster" which menaced them, unsuspecting in the Allies' agreement.

3. That Hoover himself had no part in fixing the $2.20 price.

Hoover Not Responsible

Most significant, perhaps, is the last disclosure. In all the eight years since the war, Hoover has borne the burden of the almost unanimous hostility of American farmers for his supposed part in fixing the price.

They held him personally responsible for being cut off from profits which they believed they would have made if the price had not been arbitrarily set. More than anything else, this belief among farmers has kept Hoover from being in the front rank of presidential contenders. Party leaders have felt that so long as he bore the farmers' dislike he could not be regarded seriously as a candidate.

If Hoover's story is now accepted by his former enemies, the Commerce Secretary must take on new stature as a political figure.

Asked by Cabinet to Explain

After explaining that "because of misunderstanding and misrepresentation which has grown up over the action of the Committee appointed by President Wilson in August, 1917, to determine a fair price for wheat," several members of the committee had asked him to make a complete review of the episode, Hoover said:

"The time has now come when certain factors in our war relations, relative to wheat, can be disclosed because they have so far passed into history as to be of domestic interest only. Furthermore, sufficient time has now elapsed so that a broad perspective can be given of the wheat operations during the war.

"Dr. Frank M. Surface, whose reputation as an agricultural economist needs no reference, has made a thorough study of the records of these war organizations and, for the first time, a report has been prepared based on a full examination of these records.

Farmer Saved From Disaster

"Dr. Surface's objective view easily demonstrates that the American farmer was saved from what otherwise would have been a complete disaster due to certain conditions created by the war and effectively dissipates the myth that price guarantees were entered into for any other purpose or any other result than to protect the farmers' interest.

"In July, 1917, as United States Food Administrator, I presented to the President certain facts which resulted in the appointment of the Committee to consider the situation. Briefly these facts were: that, in the spring of 1917, the Allies, by bidding against each other, had forced the price of wheat from $1.50 to over $3.00 per bushel.

"In order to abolish this competition between themselves, the Allies governments before we came into the war had consolidated their purchasing of world wheat into one buying agency. Through control of world shipping and the blockade against the enemy, this agency was the sole buyer of our wheat.

Foreign Price Fixing

"The domestic price of wheat to the American farmer was fixed by the price which could be realized for the export surplus. As export buying was all in one hand, the operation of the law of supply and demand had been abolished and the price of wheat to the American farmer, therefore, would be determined by the price which this buying agency determined to pay. Price fixing for American wheat was thus already under way in foreign lands. Congress had provided a minimum price of only $2.00 per bushel for the 1918 crop and it had made no provision for the 1917 crop then being harvested.

"The Allied governments had fixed prices of wheat in their own countries at about $1.80 per bushel, and in order to lay down American wheat at this price they considered that they should pay the American farmer about $1.50 per bushel at Chicago for the 1917 crop.

"In support of this contention their agents contended that any higher price to the American farmer would require an increase in the price of bread in the Allied countries; that the American farmer had realized only about $1.30 per bushel for his previous year's wheat despite the $3.00 corner on the Chicago market which occurred after nearly 95 per cent of all the wheat had left the farms.

Other Wheat Cheaper

"They also pointed out that they could purchase abundant supplies of wheat in Argentina and Australia at $1.50 per bushel or less and the only reason they were prevented from availing themselves of such cheaper supplies by the longer voyages to these other markets was because of the demand of the American Government for the use of their shipping for the transportation of our troops and supplies.

"In view of these determinations, it was clear that unless action should be taken on our part, the American farmer would receive $1.50 per bushel for his wheat and the price was already falling rapidly toward that level. I and my colleagues considered that a situation was impending of the greatest injustice and danger to the American farmers and we recommended to the President that our Government should take control of the market, and that he should assemble a committee predominantly representing the agricultural interests of the country, which should be called on to consider the situation, and, if they thought it wise, to determine what would be a fair price for the 1917 crop.

"Moreover, it was my desire that the farmer through this committee would have an opportunity to consider the Congressional minimum of $2.00 per bushel which was bound to become the price in the following year unless some action was taken.

President's Committee

"The President's Committee, after exhaustive examination, recommended to the President that a fair price for the 1917 crop would be $2.20 per bushel for No. 1 Northern Wheat at Chicago with appropriate differentials for other grades and markets. The President accepted these recommendations and directed that the Food Administration should carry them into effect.

"I feel free to praise the endeavors of the Committee, because, contrary to popular belief neither I nor Mr. Julius Barnes, nor my other colleagues in the Food Administration, participated in the deliberation or recommendations of that committee as to prices. That the farmer would have realized far less for his wheat without the important and courageous action of the committee is certain."

ous action of the committee is certain."

Hoover referred to a statement, apparently lost sight of, in support of his contention that he never participated in the fixing of the price, which he said President Wilson had issued saying: "Mr. Hoover at his express wish, has taken no part in the deliberations of the committee, on whose recommendation I determine the Government's fair price, nor has he in any way intimated an opinion regarding that price."

MRS. MORRIS FOX FIGHTS FOR LIFE IN ST. PAUL HOSPITAL

500 NEIGHBORS IN DEMONSTRATION AGAINST ALIEN NEIGH- BOR

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Battered and bruised, Mrs. Morris Fox is fighting for her life in Ancker hospital today for defending her five-year-old son from a crazed neighbor.

Five hundred neighbors who gathered about the Fox home Wednesday night started deportation proceedings today to oust Paul Golz, an alien, from the exclusive residential section of St. Paul, after their attempt at mob rule was stopped by police.

Playing in the front yard, Leo, five-year-old son of Mrs. Fox annoyed Golz, he contends—so he proceeded to beat him with a thick three-foot stick. Rushing to her son's aid, Mrs. Fox, frail and slight, bore the brunt of the attack.

Golz continued to rain blows on her head and body after she had swooned to the ground until neighbors succeeded in beating him off. Residents of the district gathered.

Police parted a threatened lynching party.

NEW FLOWERS DENIED U. S.

DR. MARLATT'S BULB EMBARGO WILL SHUT OUT IMPROVED DAFFODILS

If Dr. C. L. Marlatt, chairman of the Federal Horticultural Board, succeeds in enforcing his embargo against narcissus bulbs January 1, 1926, new varieties of narcissi such as are introduced each fall from European growers will become a thing of the past in American gardens. The production of new varieties is too slow a process for the American commercial grower. It requires from five to six years to flower a new variety from seed and there is then only a single bulb of it in the world. It requires at least ten years more before it can be produced in sufficient quantity to be sold at a reasonable price.

European amateurs and commercial growers alike have been producing new varieties for many years from seed sown each year, placing them on the market as fast as stocks were produced. American gardens will be cut off from these novelties for an indefinite time and the new huge trumpet daffodils which have begun to come to our gardens will be lost to us.

And all this because the Federal Horticultural board declares that daffodil bulbs might bring in insects which would attack our onion crops although they have been coming in for 200 years and nobody has lost an onion from daffodil flies or daffodil eelworms to date.

NEW FLOWERS DENIED U. S.

DR. MARLATT'S BULB EMBARGO WILL SHUT OUT IMPROVED DAFFODILS

If Dr. C. L. Marlatt, chairman of the Federal Horticultural Board, succeeds in enforcing his embargo against narcissus bulbs January 1, 1926, new varieties of narcissi such as are introduced each fall from European growers will become a thing of the past in American gardens. The production of new varieties is too slow a process for the American commercial grower. It requires from five to six years to flower a new variety from seed and there is then only a single bulb of it in the world. It requires at least ten years more before it can be produced in sufficient quantity to be sold at a reasonable price.

European amateurs and commercial growers alike have been producing new varieties for many years from seed sown each year, placing them on the market as fast as stocks were produced. American gardens will be cut off from these novelties for an indefinite time and the new huge trumpet daffodils which have begun to come to our gardens will be lost to us.

And all this because the Federal Horticultural board declares that daffodil bulbs might bring in insects which would attack our onion crops although they have been coming in for 200 years and nobody has lost an onion from daffodil flies or daffodil eelworms to date.

BUSH HATED TO LEAVE HIS YANKEE PALS

ST. LOUIS FANS ARE CHEERING
FOR HIM
NOW

IN THREE SEASONS HE BEAT
THE BROWNS SEVENTEEN
STRAIGHT

(From Boston Traveler)

"You can't make it too strong in telling every one that I am delighted with my new job," declared Joe Bush, famous "Bullet Joe" when your correspondent asked him this morning how he liked the transfer from the Yankees to the Browns. "George Sisler is a great fellow to play with and be with. Yes," he added with a smile, "the old boy is happy in his new uniform."

"After what happened on more than one occasion during last season in my relations with Miller Huggins I knew I was slated to go elsewhere. It was just a question of which club would offer the best trade."

"When I realized conditions I hoped that I would go back to Philadelphia, which is my home and also the scene of my early playing days in the American league. A deal was under way which would have sent me back to Connie Mack, but it fell through. It looked for a while as if it would be completed. Then St. Louis made an attractive offer and it was accepted."

"I regretted very much to leave my comrades on the Yankee club. They were a great bunch of fellows. It was hard to say good-by to Sam Jones, who was my roommate for seven years while with the Red Sox and Yankees. No two ball players ever were closer than Sam and I."

"But conditions have been ideal with the St. Louis club and I am perfectly satisfied. It is wonderful the way I have been treated by the fans in St. Louis. They used to hate the sight of me when I was a Yankee. During three seasons I beat the Browns 17 straight games. Every time I made my appearance as a Yankee on the field in St. Louis I would be greeted with boos."

"The chorus would be twice as strong when I was pitching and when I went to bat. Now the transformation is complete. They have been cheering for me as much as they formerly cheered against me. Early this season I was afflicted with sinus trouble and I really have not gotten over it yet."

"As a consequence I was not going good. Every time I would be batted out of the box I would be cheered as lustily as if I made a home run with the bases filled. Whenever I stepped to the plate I was saluted. On one occasion it seemed as if they kept yelling for 10 minutes."

"I never had such an experience in all my baseball life. It seems now like a dream to me, yet it is a reality. Naturally it was a lot of consolation to play ball under such conditions. It also is a great relief to be playing for a man like Sisler."

CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICANS
CALLED IN CONFERENCE
BY FORMER GOVERNOR

(By United Press)

Huron, Aug. 13.—Citizens of South Dakota are to be given "those safe and healthy principles of government" after the state is rid of its republican parasites.

Conservative republicans called in conference Wednesday by Sam Elrod, former governor resolved, to take this action so that the party concepts of President Coolidge may be brought to the people who gave him a 25,000 majority last fall.

"We regret," a resolution read, "that Calvin Coolidge has not had loyal support of present senators from this republican state in his program of better government."

(By United Press)

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 13.—Another battle is being waged in the South Dakota gasoline war today following a greater offensive by the state in slashing gasoline prices another cent at state owned filling stations.

With today's reduction enabled by lower prices at refineries, state owned filling stations are underselling stations operated by the Standard Oil and independent companies five cents a gallon.

Delay in the first attack by the White Eagle Company of St. Paul which instituted suit to test the validity of the action of the state in retailing gasoline was decided in the supreme court Wednesday. Arguments were heard in the case, but the state was allowed ten days to file an answer.

Stations are being operated by the state at Watertown, Brookings, Aberdeen, Huron, Mitchell and Madison.

"The Ranger of the Big Pines" Deals
With Western Foresters

"The Ranger of the Big Pines," the Vitagraph picturization of Hamlin Garland's novel, "Cavanagh, Forest Ranger," will begin a two-days' run at the Lyceum theatre tonight. The cast, headed by Kenneth Harlan, includes Helene Costello, Eulalie Jensen, Will Walling, Lew Harvey, Robert J. Graves, Eugene Paulette, Harvey Clark and Joan Standing.

Harlan plays Ross Cavanagh, a strong, handsome forest ranger who falls in love with Virginia Weatherford (Helene Costello). Virginia's mother, Lize Weatherford (Eulalie Jensen), is a slatternly hotelkeeper whose daughter has been educated in the east and who finds this blowsy woman a keen disappointment.

The girl is lovely and charming and Ross fights against his growing love for her, fearing the force of her heredity. He has befriended an old cattleman whom he discovers is Virginia's father insistent upon remaining dead to his wife and daughter; an interesting character played by Eugene Paulette.

Ricardo Cortez and Jetta Goudal in the Raoul Walsh
Production "The Spaniard" A Paramount Picture

Cortez a 1925 "Sheik" in "The Spaniard" at the New Park
Friday and Saturday

Here is a new type that threatens to equal if not outlive the "sheik" and the "flapper." The new editions of modern American vocabularies have added the very latest of classifications—the Spaniard. As a native or citizen of Spain, the Spaniard is erased from American speech.

In its place we now find the new type of lover—the Spaniard. He is all man, the cynosure of feminine eyes. Handsome, but not sleek. Distinctly dressed but no extremes.

Appealing personality, undaunted courage, excellent ability in many endeavors, and a man among men as well as women. That's "The Spaniard."

"Connecticut Yankee" in "Grounds For Divorce"

Harry Myers himself is authority for the statement that his role in the Paul Bern-Paramount production, "Grounds for Divorce," at the New Park last time tonight, is his finest screen part since "A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court." As Count Zapata, Myers, who heads the supporting cast in the picture, which features Florence Vidor, Matt Moore and Louise Fazenda, is a well meaning but blundering French nobleman who marries Miss Vidor after she divorces Moore, one of France's foremost divorce court lawyers. Miss Vidor divorces Moore because he pays more attention to his work than he does to her, and she divorces Myers because he gets all wrapped up in getting the U. S. A. on the radio on their wedding night and completely forgets about his bride of but a few hours. This is one of many big laugh scenes in the production.

Chicago, Aug. 13. — An Eskimo quartet singing folk songs within 11 degrees of the North Pole entertained a little group of radio enthusiasts at the Arlington Heights radio experiment station here. Loud and clear, the music came through the air and listeners declared the test a success.

The music was broadcast from the deck of the ship, Peary of the MacMillan arctic expedition.

Same Fine Studebaker Coach —but at a new low One-Price price

BECAUSE all Studebaker cars are manufactured on the one-profit basis, we have been able to reduce the price of the Standard Six Coach without sacrificing any of the equipment or quality which made it a big seller at a higher price.

Scientific design, better materials, and finer workmanship distinguish it. And the following self-evident superiorities make it more up-to-date than the newest "yearly models":

Excess Power—According to the rating of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce this is the most powerful car of its size and weight.

Abundant Room—Room to stretch your legs—room to enter or leave without disturbing occupant of folding seat.

Sturdy Body Construction—Fine northern ash and hard maple are used. We pay a premium to get the best quality steel.

Full-size Balloon Tires—for which the steering gear, fenders and even the body lines are specially designed.

Automatic Spark Control—eliminating the usual spark lever on steering wheel.

Safety Lighting Control—on the steering wheel.

Instruments—including 8-day clock, gasoline gauge, speedometer, oil-pressure gauge and ammeter, in single grouping under glass, on beautiful silver-faced dial.

Improved One-piece Windshield—automatic windshield cleaner, weather-proof visor, rear-view mirror, cowl lights and cowl ventilator.

Coincidental Lock—to ignition and steering wheel, which serves to reduce the theft insurance rate on Studebaker cars.

New-type Cowl Ventilator—foot operated.

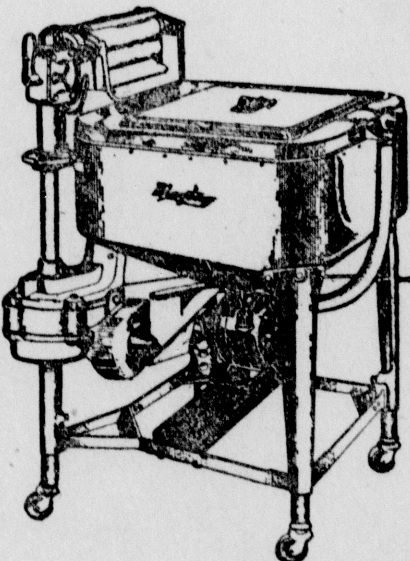

There are only two cars manufactured on the one-profit basis—the Studebaker in the fine-car field, and the Ford in the low-price field. Only in these two cases does one company in its own plants and with its own centralized organization make all bodies, all engines, all clutches, steering gears, differentials, springs, gear sets, gray iron castings, and drop forgings.

Studebaker has no "yearly models," but instead keeps its cars constantly up to date. Therefore this Standard Six Coach is ahead of the newest "yearly model," yet owners are protected from the artificial depreciation which has cut millions of dollars from the resale value of many makes during the past 30 days.

BROADCAST HARMONY WITHIN
11 DEGREES OF NORTH POLE

(By United Press)

Chicago, Aug. 13.—An Eskimo quartet singing folk songs within 11 degrees of the North Pole entertained a little group of radio enthusiasts at the Arlington Heights radio experiment station here. Loud and clear, the music came through the air and listeners declared the test a success.

The music was broadcast from the deck of the ship, Peary of the MacMillan arctic expedition.

Same Fine Studebaker Coach —but at a new low One-Profit price

BECAUSE all Studebaker cars are manufactured on the one-profit basis, we have been able to reduce the price of the Standard Six Coach without sacrificing any of the equipment or quality which made it a big seller at a higher price.

Scientific design, better materials, and finer workmanship distinguish it. And the following self-evident superiorities make it more up-to-date than the newest "yearly models":

Excess Power—According to the rating of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce this is the most powerful car of its size and weight.

Abundant Room—Room to stretch your legs—room to enter or leave without disturbing occupant of folding seat.

Sturdy Body Construction—Fine northern ash and hard maple are used. We pay a premium to get the best quality steel.

Full-size Balloon Tires—for which the steering gear, fenders and even the body lines are specially designed.

Automatic Spark Control—eliminating the usual spark lever on steering wheel.

Safety Lighting Control—on the steering wheel.

Instruments—including 8-day clock, gasoline gauge, speedometer, oil-pressure gauge and ammeter, in single grouping under glass, on beautiful silver-faced dial.

Improved One-piece Windshield—automatic windshield cleaner, weather-proof visor, rear-view mirror, cowl lights and cowl ventilator.

Coincidental Lock—to ignition and steering wheel, which serves to reduce the theft insurance rate on Studebaker cars.

New-type Cowl Ventilator—foot operated.

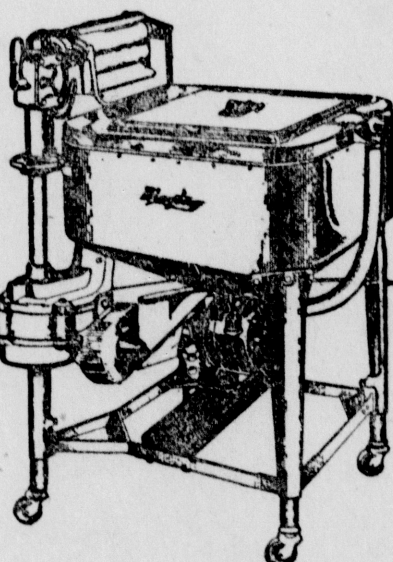

There are only two cars manufactured on the one-profit basis—the Studebaker in the fine-car field, and the Ford in the low-price field. Only in these two cases does one company in its own plants and with its own centralized organization make all bodies, all engines, all clutches, steering gears, differentials, springs, gear sets, gray iron castings, and drop forgings.

Studebaker has no "yearly models," but instead keeps its cars constantly up to date. Therefore this Standard Six Coach is ahead of the newest "yearly model," yet owners are protected from the artificial depreciation which has cut millions of dollars from the resale value of many makes during the past 30 days.

ODD FELLOWS ANNUAL OUTING

Various Branches of the Order and Friends to Meet at I. U. White Lake Home

ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 16TH

Members to Bring Picnic Baskets, Committee Supplies Coffee and Cream

The annual outing of the members of the various branches of the Odd Fellows order and their friends will be held at the summer home of I. U. White at Gull lake on next Sunday, August 16th.

Each member is to bring a basket with sufficient food to care for his or her family and at least one guest, the committee supplying the coffee and cream.

Races and games for the youngsters, with suitable prizes and a kitten ball game for the men is part of the program, with a large launch to take all who wish for a ride around the lake at any time during the day.

Beginning at 2:30 o'clock a program of speaking and music will be given with Rev. Frederick Errington of Moorhead as the principal speaker. Community singing with an experienced leader will be one of the popular features of the outing.

Automobiles will be provided for those who have no means of conveyance, and will leave the I. O. O. F. building on South Sixth street at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Annual picnics in the past have been held at the White home on Gull lake, and have proved exceptionally successful. Members of the order and their friends have come to look forward to this event with a great deal of anticipation and from the plans of the committee in charge there will be no disappointments at Sunday's picnic.

BIG NORTHERN PIKE

Fourteen Pound, 10 Ounce Fish is Caught in Big Pelican Lake by Mrs. P. E. Burch

The Perry Hardware company is displaying a big Northern pike, weighing 14 pounds 10 ounces, that was caught in Big Pelican lake by Mrs. P. E. Burch stopping at the Miller resort. The big fish was caught on a Heddon "Basser." This is the first fish exhibited this season from Pelican lake, although a number of fine catches have been reported.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Marie Gibson and Paul Walters Kruse, to be Married at Duluth

Miss Marie Gibson, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Gibson, North Fifth street, has chosen August 18th as the date of her marriage to Paul Walters Kruse, of Hibbing, formerly of Ishpeming, Michigan.

Miss Gibson, popular member of the younger set, is being honored at a number of charming social functions before her departure to Duluth, at which place the ceremony will be performed.

On Tuesday, her cousins, the Misses Marie and Jane Clark, were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the Clark home. Huge silver vases of hollyhocks and gladioli, with smaller baskets of various garden flowers, decorated the rooms. A miniature bride with the conventional bridal procedure of tiny lighted tapers, baskets of baby breath and white ribbons formed the table decorations on which the gifts were arranged.

Another pre-nuptial affair in compliment to Miss Gibson was a 1:30 o'clock bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Milton Mahlum at her home in St. Cloud this Thursday afternoon.

On Saturday Mrs. W. Ray Cleary will entertain at a bridge in honor of Miss Gibson.

Blumenthal-Cullen

The Phillipsburg Mail, of Phillipsburg, Montana, in its issue of August 7th, contains an account of the wedding of Miss Marie Cullen of Brainerd. The following is reprinted from that paper:

A wedding of unusual interest to the Mail's readers was solemnized in Missoula last Saturday evening, August 1st, when Albert Blumenthal and Miss Marie Cullen were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. P. Meade of St. Anthony's Catholic church of that city. Miss Florence Blumenthal was bridesmaid and W. R. Wyatt, principal of the Powell county high school, was best man.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Blumenthal and is a junior at the University of Montana where he has been prominent in athletics. His bride is well known in this city, where she has been employed as an instructor in the grade schools. She returned to Montana last week after spending the summer at her home in Brainerd.

Miss Cullen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cullen, 117 Gillis avenue, Northeast. She is a graduate of the local school and the Brainerd Commercial College. Before going to Montana she was a teacher in the schools at Aitkin. Her many friends in the city will join with the Dispatch in offering congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds.

Information not included in the Mail's story is to the effect that a dinner was served to the bridal party at the home of the groom's parents following the pleasing ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Blumenthal will make their home in Montana.

SHIMMY RUMBLINGS REVEALED IN MONTANA

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—When that "mamma" shook her shimmy-rumbly-rumbly resembling landslides or fair sized earthquakes rolled out of the foothills of Montana.

Word of the "shake-down" contest staged at Glacier Park, Montana, bringing together recognized artists, dark horses, and amateurs in the gentle art of "struttin'" was received here today.

Arrangements had been completed—first prize had been conceded to a stalwart squaw of the park reservation when Big Bertha, pride of the mountains, came out of the great open spaces where men are men and women "can't be still."

Big Bertha—four hundred pounds heavy—failed to experience much competition in the tom-tom shimmy event—shaking not only herself but every rafter in the judges stand.

Squaws of twelve Indian tribes, entered in the event conducted contests—with closed entries—after Bertha had ambled off to her home in the foothills.

AT BRAINERD FLOWER SHOW

Dahlias Have Become Among Most Popular Flowers in This Section

Amun Ra, Mariposa, Pride of California, Ballet Girl, Break O'Day, Millionaire, Vater Rhein, Attraction and a host of similar names will greet the visitors at the annual garden flower show, who are interested in the big dahlia exhibit.

Dahlias have become a most popular flower during the past several years. Originally a native of Mexico, it was developed by a native of Sweden named Dahl, to whose name "ia" was added in naming this flower.

There are now over seven thousand different varieties of dahlias catalogued, and each year sees a new lot which are improvements on those developed in past years.

It is expected that there will be fifty or seventy-five different varieties of dahlias exhibited at the coming flower show. In the main these are of the better varieties and are well worth seeing.

The show is to be held at the court house on August 25th and 26th, and promises to have a record attendance as well as a record exhibit, for in addition to a large showing of dahlias there is expected to be a very fine exhibit of gladioli.

Premium lists are now ready and may be secured from C. W. Mahlum of the county garden flower society.

EXTENDED MOTOR TRIP

Rev. A. G. Patterson, Family and Two Sisters Visited in Northern Part of State

Rev. A. G. Patterson and family and his two sisters returned Wednesday from an extended motor trip through the northern part of the state.

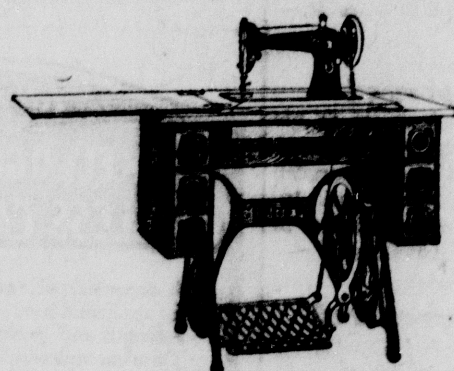

Going by way of Red Lake and International Falls to Warroad and returning through Thief River Falls and Detroit the party enjoyed a most delightful trip, camping along the route and seeing the sights along the way.

A special thrill was experienced about two miles from Warroad when a big black bear ambled across the road in front of the automobile.

The Pattersons will spend the balance of their vacation at their summer cottage at Hubert lake.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

M. G. E. Senn's Birthday Anniversary Observed by Party of 12 Friends

A very delicious dinner was served at seven o'clock Wednesday evening at the G. E. Senn cottage on Norton Long lake to a party of twelve friends, the occasion being Mrs. Senn's birthday.

She was the recipient of a number of beautiful bouquets as well as many other gifts. The evening was spent in playing games and in vocal and instrumental music.

The guests departed at a late hour having enjoyed themselves to the utmost and wishing Mrs. Senn many happy returns of the day.

Ice Cream Social

Tomorrow evening the "Alwa's Faithful" class of the Swedish Bethany church will hold an ice cream and cake social on the church lawn, starting at 5 o'clock and continuing until a late hour. If the weather is rainy or cold they will serve in the church.

This class is composed of boys and girls between the ages of 11 and 14 years, and they wish to do their bit in increasing the building fund. Miss Hazel Fallquist is the class president. Every member of the class has been busy making preparations to serve a large crowd promptly.

Streetcar Motorman Tagged by Traffic Cop

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—At last a streetcar motorman has been "tagged."

He is Benjamin Portion, 791 E. 7th street, motorman on a Snelling-Minnehaha street car.

Motorcycle Policeman Benjamin Bodisch of the Minneapolis police department is preferring the charges. He claims he was chasing a speeding motorist Tuesday and attempted to make a left turn in front of the street car.

The motorman ignored his signals and started the car across a street intersection with the result that there was a near collision.

Bodisch did not appear in Minneapolis traffic court this morning owing to the sudden illness of a brother in Rochester, Minn., where his presence was required.

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox Voice Their Appreciation

Ernest E. Fox and family, Mr. Levsey and family, Mr. Lambert and sons Harold and Elmer, all of Aurora, Ill., spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox, an uncle of Ernest, whom he had not seen since early childhood.

The visitors enjoyed the accommodations at the Brainerd tourist park, saying that it is the best arranged and most commodious they have stopped at since leaving their home.

The party very much enjoyed Minnesota scenery, the pines, lakes and the fishing. They caught an abundance of crappies, bass and pickerel in this vicinity.

A return trip to Brainerd for next summer is already being planned, at which time the party will be enlarged by the addition of Ernest Fox's two brothers and their families, at which time a longer visit will be made. The visitors left for Aurora on Thursday morning.

Where is the wife and mother who doesn't enjoy the knowledge that somewhere she has a little extra money hidden away for emergencies?

Time was when the hiding place was likely to be an old stocking, a mattress or a china pig. Today, however, thrifty women of Brainerd and vicinity prefer that safer and more profitable nook, a Savings Account at the Citizens State Bank.

SPORT A BUSINESS FOR PROFESSIONALS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Aug. 13.—There is so much bunk written about the lives of professional baseball players and boxers that it is refreshing to hear an occasional hero come out and tell the truth about his business.

The first line written about a new ring champion concerns the great love that he has for his mother, as if love of a mother is so unusual that it should be worthy of comment.

The next line always concerns the way the fighter started in his racket and it always tells the same story. He was brought up in the tenements where he had to fight the bully of the block or stay in the tenement and that he took up professional fighting because he liked it.

Filial devotion isn't considered so extraordinary in baseball that it should be featured in writing about a hero of the diamond, but the big star always got his start on the corner lot and succeeded in getting to the top because of a consuming love for the grand old national pastime.

It is refreshing to hear a nice, mild-mannered youngster, like Charley Rosenberg, the bantamweight champion of the world, tell the truth about his purpose in becoming a professional fighter.

"I didn't have to fight as a kid, and I wasn't born in a tough tenement district," Rosenberg says. "I took up fighting because I thought it was the quickest way for a boy with a limited education to make money. I'm staying in the boxing game just for a stake. I'm not in love with the business and I want to get out of it as soon as I have enough money to set me up in a good real estate business. I've got a little money now and I'm already building up a business. I'm going to save my money and I won't have any regrets when I'm through."

Another who blasts popular romance that is painted around a baseball hero is Earl McNeely, the young outfield star of the Washington Senators, whose hit won the last world's series against the New York Giants.

McNeely admits that he has no consuming love for baseball and that he is in the game purely for business reasons. He wasn't born with a baseball in his hands. He didn't play on the sand lots and didn't play at all until he was nineteen years old.

"When I had a chance to play professional baseball," he says, "I went into it only because I wanted to get a bankroll. I took a course in civil engineering and worked some in a bank, but found out that those who succeeded quickest in any profession were those who started out with a bankroll, and it is the old bankroll that I'm after."

Abe Goldstein, even when he was the bantamweight champion, never admitted that he liked the professional ring. He, too, said it was the big money that came quick that started him in the game and is keeping him there.

Matty Celebrates His Birthday Anniversary

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Recovering from a breakdown he suffered last spring, Christy Mathewson, celebrated his 45th birthday at his home here yesterday. He joined the Giants in 1900 and was with them 15 years. He is now president of the Boston Braves.

Baffled Curiosity

Men are funny creatures. They are trying by every imaginable means to find out how old the earth is, when they can't even find out the age of the average woman on it.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

They Die of Old Age

Some Long Sentences

It was an old theory that acts of parliament should consist of a single sentence. It required the authority of a special statute in 1850 to allow from that date forward parliamentary draftsmen to insert full stops in acts of parliament.

ADVANCE STEP

NEARER TO 2ND HALF CHAMPION

FIGHT FOR VICTORY IN TWI-LIGHT CITY LEAGUE IS CLOSE ONE

INTERESTING GAMES AFFORDED TO THE LOCAL FANS

Game tonight, 6:00 P. M.
Y. M. C. A. vs. B. A. C.
New Municipal Diamond

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
A. O. U. W.	3	2	3	.600
Y. M. C. A.	4	3	1	.571
B. P. O. E.	4	4	0	.500
B. A. C.	2	4	2	.333

The Y. M. C. A. advanced a notch nearer the second half championship by downing the Elks in a six-inning affair last night, 4-3. They still have two games to play, and must win both to be sure of the first place, with a chance even then of having to share with the Workmen. The fight for victory this half is a close one.

Starting with a bang in the first inning, the Y scored two in that frame, and two in the third. With one gone, LeNeau doubled to far left, and would perhaps have made third on the hit, if he had not turned his ankle in running. Peterson hit a hard liner through the infield scoring Dillan, who ran for LeNeau. Orth singled to score Peterson.

In the third, LeNeau again started the works going by singling, and Swanson took his place on the bases. Peterson again delivered, to score Swanson, who had taken second on Hanson's error of Van Walk's peg. Peterson reached second on the throw-in, and came home on Dillan's hit over Bedal's head in left. This ended the scoring for the Y.

The Elks made one in the fourth, on Hanson's hit and Ziebell's hard single, coupled with a passed ball which allowed Hanson to take second. They scored two in the sixth, Bedal starting by singling, Hanson flied to Orth, Ziebell forced Bedal, Shello singled, both runners advanced on a passed ball, and came home when Stallman's infield tap was mishandled.

The game was another good one to watch. There was plenty of hitting to make it interesting for spectators, and some good defensive playing on both sides.

Peterson, with a perfect day at bat, getting three hits in as many times up, and LeNeau, with a double and single, were the hitting stars.

Tonight the Y. M. C. A. and B. A. C. play. Either Jones or Soderlund will throw for the B. A. C., with Peterson on the mound for the Y. M. C. A.

St. Paul Barnstormers Continue Winning Games

Dickinson, N. D., Aug. 13.—North-eastern Pacific defeated Dickinson Tuesday by a score of 8 to 5. This makes five victories out of the last six games.

Carl Drost pitched for the Railway nine. Clarence Weike's hitting and Sells's fielding featured. The St. Paul team will play at Winnipeg Friday and Saturday, concluding the tour.

FAMOUS PARTY OF 200 TOURED THE PACIFIC NORTH-WEST

Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—The famous party of golfing tourists who have been visiting the principal courses of the Pacific northwest, will arrive in Minneapolis Saturday morning for exhibitions at the Blooming-ton and Country club courses. More than 200 prominent businessmen and golfers from virtually every section of the country makes up the personnel of the delegation who will be guests of the two clubs and the Civic and Commerce association during their stay here.

Such noted golfers and businessmen as Jim Barnes, British open champion; Jack Hutchinson, former British and national open champion; Chick Evans, former national and western amateur title holder; Keefe Carter, winner of the 1925 western amateur; Commissioner of Baseball K. M. Landis; Captain E. Carter of Chicago; A. T. Packard, managing editor of the Golfers' magazine; Charles O. Pfeil, president of the Western Golf association, are listed in the party.

Barnes, Hutchinson, Evans and Carter undoubtedly will be paired off against star local golfers in special exhibition matches at the Blooming-ton and Country clubs Saturday.—Minneapolis Tribune.

BIG TEN STARS

IN FOOTBALL ARE WRESTLING STUDIES

GRANGE, BACKWARD IN STUDIES BECAUSE OF SICKNESS, IS NOW STUDYING UP

DUVAL, SHORT ON SCHOLARSHIP LAST YEAR, MAKES GRADE FOR 1925 TEAM

(By United Press)
Chicago, Aug. 13.—With the football season looming on the horizon, stars of the Western conference are getting ready for a campaign that is at present more important than their ball toting, tossing or catching that of getting eligible.

Harold "Red" Grange, sterling Illinois halfback, received a "condition" in "Transportation 1," a subject in commerce school. Every night at Wheaton, after laying aside the ice tongs, the Illinois captain went into session with a self-appointed body of tutors who have made it their business to see that he who has been called the greatest player of all time plays football this fall.

Grange is generally rated a better than average student, but during last winter he was laid up with a siege of mumps, which kept him away from the university for nearly a month. He caught up with all his other studies save Transportation.

At the University of Chicago the bugaboo has been chased into a corner of Stag field and downed. "Chuck" Duval, whom loyal Maroons say will fade Grange and "Moon" Baker, Northwestern star this season, have become eligible. Duval, downed last year by scholarship, and out of the game when the Stagmen most needed a capable passer, has made the grade for the 1925 team. So has Yessley, who is alleged to be the "coming end."

At Northwestern, Baker is on the anxious seat with Grange, but a condition is all he has to remove, and a summer session course in which he is excelling in his work, is all set to remove the "con."

At the University of Wisconsin the new coach and athletic director, Geo. Little, will find himself without the services of one of the most promising quarterbacks the Cardinal had ever counted on. Marshall (Mike) Stone tried in vain for three years to make the scholastic grade and finally dropped out of school to be married.

Other conference schools, including Michigan and Minnesota look forward to little scholastic trouble with their grid luminaries.

BAND AND DRUM CORPS CONTESTS OF ELKS

CONDITIONS OF CONTEST HAVE BEEN ARRANGED

ALL BANDS AND DRUM CORPS
COMPETING MUST BE EN-
TIRELY ELKS

JUDGES WILL BE THREE WELL KNOWN BAND LEADERS OF MINNESOTA

Dr. Chester R. Leech, trustee of St. Paul Lodge of Elks and chairman of the State Association bands and drum corps committee, has addressed the 24 Elks lodges of Minnesota, asking their entry in the band and drum corps contests to be held at the state convention in Brainerd. These contests will be held on the second day of the convention, Friday afternoon, August 21, at Gregory park and will attract large crowds.

The following rules will govern the band contest. Bands and drum corps must be composed entirely of Elks.

Bands must be international low pitch and play: (a) March of their own selection; (b) Overture; (c) Waltz or selection; (d) Popular number.

The judges will be three well known band leaders of the state for the band contest. In all probability A. L. Snyder of the Minnesota State Band, Fred Albrecht of the St. Paul Municipal band and W. W. Nelson of the State Orchestra of Minneapolis will act as judges.

The judging will be based on the following points: Appearance and deportment, 10 per cent; Ensemble, 35 per cent; Expression, 20 per cent; Grade of Music, 10 per cent; Interpretation, 15 per cent; Instrumentation, 10 per cent.

Drum and Bugle Corps
The drum and bugle corps will be marked on the following basis: Neatness of uniform, 15 per cent; Popularity, 10 per cent; March proficiency and appearance, 25 per cent; Grade of music and execution, 50 per cent.

Drum corps will play three selections, the first one approaching the judges' stand, the second standing before the judges and the third leaving the field.

All organizations to be eligible for prizes must participate with their organizations intact in the parade to be held on Friday, August 21. Leaders of the organizations will please get in communication with the committee on their arrival in Brainerd to arrange for the drawing for prizes.

Eveleth is Coming

We have had two letters so far assuring us that Eveleth lodge is coming. Here is another communication, this time from Grove Mills, editor and publisher of the "Clarion."

"Received your Elks story and gave it publicity in the Eveleth Clarion. Send me some more dope next week. Your name (Hoffbauer) looked familiar as I recall our Northern Minnesota Editorial Association meeting in Brainerd two years ago when I won a prize in your publicity contest covering Brainerd and the Lake Region."

"Eveleth is coming at least 75 strong. I am one of the two official delegates this year. We are bringing the ten piece orchestra to play for street dances. Would you care to use a cut of our beautiful new home and a story on one of the convention days, say Saturday? Will send it in if you say so."

Mr. Wills then made his room reservations. He was assured that all his Eveleth publicity and newspaper cuts mentioned will be welcome.

St. Paul Lodge Coming

Commissioner of Parks and Playgrounds Wenzel of St. Paul, who, with his wife and children, is spending a vacation at Gull Lake near the government dam, assured the Dispatch that St. Paul will be largely represented.

Mayor Arthur Nelson and family of St. Paul have a cottage at Gull lake and will attend the convention.

BUS TRAFFIC WAR DAWNS IN BUS CIRCLES

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—Possibility of a bus traffic war with recognized lines now privately operated opposing lines owned by railroads is considered imminent.

Petitions have been signed by S. A. Bolinger asking the state railroad and warehouse commission to grant a franchise for the operation of six bus lines in the state. Articles of incorporation for $200,000 will also be filed.

With the granting of the petitions terminal facilities will be listed here, Bolinger said.

DEFENSE ATTORNEYS FOR DOROTHY ELLINGSON STRIKE FINAL BLOW

SEEK HER ACQUITTAL OF MATRIMONIAL CHARGES

(By United Press)
San Francisco, Aug. 13.—Defense attorneys for Dorothy Ellingson, 17-year-old "jazz baby," accused of matricide, hoped today to strike a final blow for her acquittal through excluding from the evidence the "confession" she gave police after her arrest.

Dorothy was "persuaded" to confess killing her mother, said the opening statement of the defense. She also was temporary insane when she signed the confession, it will be contended.

Prosecutor Skillin is prepared to lengthen his case to any degree in order to get the confession into the testimony. Without the alleged confession, the case of the state against Dorothy is almost entirely circumstantial.

Druse Revolt In French Syrian Mandate

(By United Press)
London, Aug. 13.—The Central News Constantinople correspondent quoting Adana reports, says that the Druse revolt in the French-Syrian mandate is spreading. The French were reported fearing that the neighboring Arab tribesmen would also rise.

The situation at Damascus was characterized as disquietening.

enthusiasm about the Elks convention in Brainerd that he will march with a "Flint, Mich." banner. If there are any more Flint Elks around, he wants them to join his section.

In the same manner all stray Elks are asked to step in the parade. A small banner can easily be procured in Brainerd, showing where the Elks comes from and they will be given honored positions in the parade, attesting to its wider-than-state representations.

Superior, Wis., is expected to send a delegation, and Omaha, Nebraska, in the past has assured Brainerd Elks they would be represented. Davenport, Iowa, has a number of Elks who spend their summers here and they will come from the Brainerd lake region for the big parade.

Close Business Houses 4 P. M.
The Brainerd Elks lodge at its last meeting August 6 voiced an appeal to the Business Men's Association that business houses close at 4 p. m. on parade day Friday, August 21, so that merchants and clerks may be able to see the parade or march in its ranks. Many are Elks.

The Business Men's Association took cognizance of this and now asks that business houses close at 4 p. m. As matters stand in the past, nobody has ever done much business when an Elks state convention parade marched past with 20 bands and drum corps, a dozen floats and a score of marching clubs, horsemen and other attractions.

DARING PRISON BREAK, SLAYING AND WOUNDING

OREGON STATE PENITENTIARY IS SCENE LAST NIGHT

TWO PRISON GUARDS AND ONE CONVICT SLAIN IN MELEE

(By United Press)
Salem, Oregon, Aug. 13.—A daring prison break at the Oregon state penitentiary here last night resulted in the slaying of two prison guards and one convict, the wounding of another guard and convict, and the escape of three convicts. A posse of 35 officers and citizens is in pursuit of the escaped convicts still at large.

The three convicts who escaped were all under long sentences for desperate crimes and were last seen heading across the Marion-Polk bridge across the Willamette river in a commandeered automobile.

The break occurred at supper time when all but the four involved in the plot marched to the mess hall. The four remained behind and got out of sight of guards. They crawled through a hole in the wall to the upper tier of cells and then to the roof of the building. A rope dangling from the roof showed how the prisoners got down into the yard. They rushed to the arsenal, seized rifles and then escaped.

CROP CONDITION FORECAST FOR STATE AUG. 1

INCREASED PRODUCTION IN CORN, POTATOES, HAY, OATS

REPORT ISSUED BY PAUL H. KIRK, FEDERAL STATISTICIAN

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 13.—Based on crop conditions in Minnesota as of Aug. 1, compared with July 1, 1925, the forecast production of corn, potatoes, hay, oats and other grains showed marked increases, according to the report issued today by Paul H. Kirk, federal statistician for the Minnesota Crop Reporting Service.

The various crops, excepting rye and wheat showed increases ranging from 500,000 bushels to 14,906,000 bushels. The increases were reported as follows:

Corn—5,251,000 bushels.
Oats—14,906,000 bushels.
Barley—2,435,000 bushels.
Potatoes—3,204,000 bushels.
Flax—540,000 bushels.
Hay—488,000 tons.

Decreases were noted in both spring and winter wheat and rye, as follows:
Spring wheat—1,568,000 bushels.
Winter wheat—540,000 bushels.
Rye—3,863,000 bushels.

"The month of July was favorable for the rapid development of the corn crop in most sections of the state and the condition Aug. 1 was 83 per cent of normal or two points higher than July 1," the report states. "The Aug. 1 condition forecasts a production of 145,853,000 bushels, compared with 126,336,000 bushels harvested in 1924. With August the critical corn month as far as filling is concerned, conditions may change. Higher production than forecast will result with favorable weather, including ample rain."

"With the oat crop 89 per cent of normal forecasting a production of 164,846,000 bushels, conditions are promising. The forecast production is 19,000,000 bushels in excess of the five year average."

VOLCANO SPOUTS ON EASTERN ISLE FOLLOWING QUAKES

(By United Press)
London, Aug. 13.—A volcano on the fruitful island of Santorin, according to the Exchange Telegraph Athens correspondent, has become active after being dormant since 1866.

The population in panic is evacuating the region.

The eruptions are now in their third day. Earthquake shocks at Smyrna 10 days ago are believed by experts to have been the cause of volcanic activity.

MINNESOTA OCCUPIES ALL WINNIPEG

CITY YIELDS SELF WITHOUT A STRUGGLE TO AMERICAN LEGION

COLERAINE POST BAND AND DRUM CORPS HEAD THE PROCESSION

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—Minnesota's occupation of Winnipeg last night was a peaceful one. The city yielded itself without a struggle to the 1,700 smiling, singing invaders wearing the American Legion badge and not only surrendered, but lined the streets all the way from the Canadian Pacific station to the armory to give the conquerors welcome. All the veterans' headquarters were raided and the raiders were received with open arms.

The zero hour was between 6:45 and 7 p. m. when the American Legion came over the top at two points—the Union and the Canadian Pacific depots.

Major General Ketchum and his staff with Mayor Ralph Webb and others took the salute at the city hall. It was a long route to the armory, but the visitors made the best of it.

Automobiles had been provided for the members of the American Legion Auxiliary, but a great many of the women preferred to march. Comments on the length of Winnipeg's streets heard afterward were caustic.

The band of the Coleraine post and the various drum corps, as well as the pipe band headed the procession and made them step lively.

QUESTION MOTORIST ON DRUGS FOUND IN CAR

St. Cloud, Aug. 13.—Cloyde Cordrey, Indianapolis, is being questioned today by St. Cloud police concerning several bottles of narcotics found in his possession.

Mr. Cordrey was released Tuesday from a St. Cloud hospital where he has been suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident Sunday. He was pinned underneath his automobile when it ran off the road east of St. Cloud. The narcotics were found in his possession at that time.

4 APPOINTMENTS TO STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE BOARD

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Four appointments to the state teachers' college board were announced today by Governor Christianson.

The new appointments are R. H. Schumaker, Bemidji, to replace A. P. White, resigned, until 1927, and Alvah Eastman, St. Cloud, replacing B. O. Schaud.

Reappointments were S. H. Samson, Winona, and I. N. Tompkins, Mankato.

for spring wheat 15 per cent to 71 per cent of normal. The forecast production of 22,800,000 bushels is a 12,000,000 decrease from the 1924 yield."

Other grains are reported in good condition.

INCREASED DOPE SALES CHECKED UP BY FEDERAL MEN

MAKE EFFORT TO UNTANGLE WEB OF UNDERWORLD INTRIGUE

NATIONWIDE DOPE RING EXPOSURE IN CHICAGO TO BE MADE

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—Increased dope sales during the past month are being checked up by federal narcotic agents here in an effort to unravel a tangled web of underworld intrigue unearthed by a nationwide dope ring exposure in Chicago.

The maze of secret communications between drug smugglers and wholesalers has carried the dope surplus made possible by lax enforcement in Chicago into the northwest, authorities conclude.

While narcotic sales are admittedly on the increase, northwest federal agents are not under observation as lieutenants of Colonel William Beach, Chicago district chief now under arrest for trafficking in narcotics.

More cases than have been handled in the past ten months have come to the attention of the northwest division in the last thirty days, Dr. H. H. Wouters, northwest divisional chief said today.

While Chicago tongs are reported ready for battle, Chinese in the Twin Cities declared all is quiet here.

TOLL BRIDGE AT HUDSON, WIS., NOW UNDER FIRE

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT AND WAR DEPARTMENT OPEN ATTACKS

HUDSON MUST ELIMINATE TOLL FEE OR TRAFFIC IS ROUTED

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Alleged "Jesse James" tactics presented in the form of a toll bridge on tourists crossing the Minnesota line at Hudson, Wis., are taboo.

Officials of the state highway department and the war department have opened attacks on the plan which netted the Wisconsin town $70,000 last year.

Hudson must eliminate the toll bridge or face the possibility of rerouted traffic, condemnation proceedings or a parallel bridge. This was the edict issued today by Chas. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner.

Profits of the toll bridge, originally costing $24,000, have been applied to municipal expenses, reducing taxes in the city.

Are Temporarily Released From Marketing Contracts

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Members of the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange today were temporarily released from marketing contracts.

The action releasing the members from their contracts to sell potato crops through the exchange follows recommendations made to the board of trustees of the organization by the various sub-district bodies.

Each of the 13800 members of the exchange will receive a letter this week offering to release the individual members from their contracts for pool sales through the exchange. It is expected that a majority of the members will accept the offer.

KLAN, ANTI-KLAN USE TEAR BOMBS AND OTHER WEAPONS

(By United Press)
Reading, Mass., Aug. 13.—Following a two-hour clash here between Klan and anti-Klansmen in which tear gas bombs, revolvers, stone showers, clubs and hand to hand encounters figured, state police early today took command of the situation and dispersed the opposing factions, arresting 15.

Two alleged Klansmen were arrested and held on charges of carrying dangerous weapons. They are alleged to have drawn clubs when a state trooper took them into custody.

QUIZ OF BORDER TOURIST BUREAU BEGUN BY STATE

MIKE HOLM STARTS PROBE OF SCHEME TO DIVERT TRAFFIC

S. P. A. DIRECTORS MAP ACTION TO COMBAT MISREPRESENTATION AT STATE LINE

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Mike Holm, secretary of state, today started an investigation of the state line bureau of the Minnesota Tourist service at the Minnesota-Wisconsin boundary.

This bureau, by aid of misleading signs which made tourists believe it was an agency of the state of Minnesota, has been attempting to divert traffic from St. Paul to Minneapolis.

"If it is found true that the bureau has used application blanks furnished by my office in a scheme to advertise any one locality, the privilege of using the blanks will be taken away, said Mr. Holm. "These blanks are supplied to banks, stores and other agencies to aid the state in registering nonresident motorists. But the blanks are always given out with the understanding that there will be no advertising scheme in connection with their use."

Mr. Holm was quoted in The Daily News Tuesday as saying that he would do nothing to stop the misrepresentation at the bureau on the Minnesota side of the Hudson bridge. He explained today that he was misunderstood and that he merely said that hundreds of agencies have the blank applications, and that the state had no other way of securing the registration.

St. Paul Association directors met Tuesday to discuss the activities of the Minnesota Tourist service as exposed by The Daily News. The misrepresentation carried out by signs almost identical with those of the state highway commission was bitterly denounced and a committee appointed to make an investigation. Commissioner Babcock was present and he also denounced the system of handing out propaganda. He denied, however, that his department has any way of stopping the practice. The S. P. A. committee conferred with Mr. Holm yesterday.

The latter explained that no permits are issued from the roadside booth, but that official applications for nonresident permits are signed here.

REWARD OFFERED FOR APPREHENSION OF WOMAN SLAYER

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—A reward of $500 has been offered for the apprehension of four murderers wanted in connection with the slaying of Mary Karish, aged resident of Biwabik, St. Louis county, July 21st.

Governor Theodore Christianson today issued a proclamation announcing the reward would be paid to any person furnishing information leading to the arrest or conviction of the men.

The fugitives have been at liberty since the crime and no trace of them has been found.

PASSENGER AND TRAFFIC MEN ARE INVITED

RAIL MEN TO BE GIVEN AUTO TOUR OF OUR LAKE REGION AUGUST 19

FOLLOWED BY DINNER FOR ALL INTERESTED AT BREEZY POINT LODGE

The Brainerd Lions club has set in motion a Brainerd lake region advertising campaign, which in the minds of all who have heard of the plan is to be one of the biggest things of its kind ever attempted in this section.

Speakers from outside the city, who have visited this lake region and later addressed the Lions club, have without an exception dwelt strongly upon the possibilities of this great summer playground but have criticized local people for not appreciating these natural opportunities and for not advertising them to the rest of the world.

Statements have been made by many visitors that if the Brainerd lake region were in some localities it would be more popular than the majority of vacation districts in the United States.

The Lions club, realizing the truth of these arguments, has planned a dinner to be held on next Wednesday evening, August 19th, at Breezy Point Lodge to which all who are interested in the development of the local summer playgrounds are invited.

Honor guests at this big dinner are to be railway officials from all roads bringing tourists into Minnesota. The club has extended invitations to these officials and has already received acceptances from passenger traffic officers from the Northwestern Railway, the Burlington, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad.

Here's a Passenger Agent Lion
The letter from W. L. Mansfield, general passenger agent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, is especially encouraging and is quoted in part herewith:

"As a member of the St. Paul Lions club, I am particularly proud that your club has sponsored this move to get the railroad men better in touch with the lake region around Brainerd, and I am sure that the results will be far beyond your expectation, as our own railroad has a most productive territory around St. Louis City, Ia., Omaha and Lincoln, Neb., and the South and with proper literature and co-operation the large volume of tourists we bring in could be greatly increased and possibly doubled. I can assure you of our best efforts. I have also observed that we bring in many tourists from Milwaukee, Chicago and the East to the Minnesota resorts, and after an inspection trip to your locality we should be in a better position to give information about your playground. I appreciate your invitation and am looking forward to a very pleasant visit."

Many Rail Officials Coming
Without an exception, the rail officials are writing that they will arrive in Brainerd on the afternoon train Wednesday. The Lions club has planned an automobile tour of the nearby lakes, stopping at the various resorts and ending at Breezy Point lodge in time for the dinner at seven o'clock in the evening.

It is hoped that Brainerd business men will see the value of this get-together dinner with the railway officials, and will join with the Lions club in the Breezy Point meeting on Wednesday evening. Tickets for the dinner have been printed and can be procured by all who desire to attend by applying to any member of the club. It is expected that so great will be the interest locally that the business men will be more than anxious to procure tickets, and will secure them from the Lions club members.

FIVE BUS LINES
SEEK PERMITS

NORTHLAND, JEFFERSON, INTERSTATE, MESABA AND MOTOR TRUCK COMPANIES

Minneapolis, Aug. 13—Notices that applications for bus operating permits had been filed with the state railroad and warehouse commission by five Minnesota bus companies were received by Al. P. Erickson, county auditor, Wednesday.

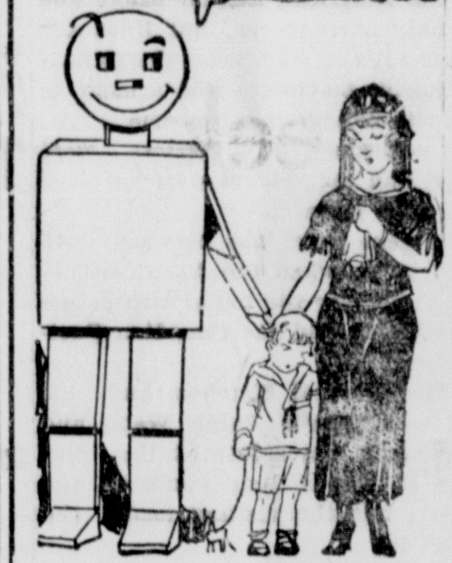

The companies, all of which are now operating, and which filed their requests for permanent permits under the bus regulatory act passed at the last session of the legislature, are the Northland Transportation Co., Jefferson Highway Transportation Co., the Interstate Transportation Co., the Mesaba Transportation Co., and the Motor Truck Service Co.

Of the five companies, the Jefferson is the largest, its application being for permits for 12 routes, totaling nearly 2,000 miles. The Northland, with 11 routes, is second, and is followed by the Mesaba Co., which operates seven routes over 650 miles on the Iron Range and west therefrom. The Interstate Co. has five routes, over 700 miles, and the Motor Truck Service Co. is applying for permission to operate from Minneapolis to Staples, 164 miles.

GIRL WANTS TO ENTER CON- VENT TO ESCAPE MAD- HOUSE

New York, Aug. 13. — Obsessed with the fear that she is to be committed to a madhouse, Mary Spas sought seclusion in the Astoria home that she left a week ago, to assume the role of a modern Cinderella.

No longer the foster daughter of Millionaire Edward W. Browning, she has gone back to her Bohemian parents.

Instead of a future filled with over-stuffed wardrobes, Rolls-Royce cars and speed boats, Mary now looks to the drab walls of a convent for solace and plans to become a nun.

In a telephone conversation with a representative of the United Press, the demoted Cinderella said:

"I've got to get away. I've got to go somewhere. They're trying to send me to the crazy house. That's why I was afraid after the adoption was canceled."

"Monday night I tried to get into a convent in New Jersey. They would not take me because they said I was too excited, and did not know my own mind. They told me to come back later if I still wanted to go into a convent. That's what I intend to do."

"My mother and father want me to stay at home. My father said this was the place for me, but I could not after all this has happened. I want to be left alone."

As Cinderella, Mary's voice was sweet and subdued. But on this occasion she talked excitedly and incoherently. She was asked what document Browning had requested her to sign in the corridor of a Broadway hotel yesterday? Mary evaded the question, however.

Browning, however, says both Mr. and Mrs. John Spas, Mary's parents, have signed papers repudiating statements attributed to their daughter and syndicated by a newspaper. He said Mary had verbally repudiated the statement. She had not signed a statement of repudiation, Browning added.

Browning announced that he was arranging through his attorney to start criminal libel action.

"The published articles to which I refer are too utterly absurd. The charges they contain are so patently fictitious that I think we already have a strong case," he said.

An automobile loaded with feminine finery will stop at Mary's home today. The millionaire who was her fairy godfather for a week has decided that Mary shall have all the dresses, shoes, hats and jewelry purchased during their one and only shopping tour through 5th ave.

$500,000 CRIMINAL LIBEL SUIT DAWNS

New York, Aug. 13.—Having abdicated the throne on which he sat for a week as fairy godfather, Edward Browning, millionaire, today promised to tell the "inside story" of the Cinderella race which 21-year-old Mary Spas won and lost.

Browning and his attorney have prepared a statement on the sensational case which the wealthy realtor says he will use as the base for the $500,000 criminal libel suit against the New York newspaper that is publishing the alleged story of Mary's adventures as Cinderella.

While Browning was preparing to open his counter-attack, Mary remained barricaded in the humble Astoria residence to which she returned after being stripped of her Cinderella frills and furbelows.

BOY OF 10 IS KIDNAPER MARK

JOSEPH HIRSCHBEIN OF CHICAGO
CLOSELY GUARDED BY PARENTS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Aug. 13.—Joseph Hirschbein, 10, was closely guarded in the apartment house of his parents at a fashionable South Side hotel following threats of kidnaping by a gang which demanded $5,000 of the boy's father, M. L. Hirschbein.

Early this morning, Hirschbein accompanied by police kept an appointment with members of the gang at a lonely spot near the South Side railroad tracks, but no one appeared to meet him.

Threats of kidnaping were made in two telephone calls in which he was told to bring $5,000 tightly rolled in papers.

"If you bring the police, we will get your boy anyhow. Our gang is just that big," Hirschbein was told.

HAIRCUT PRICES ARE SLASHED IN BARBER WAR

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—A barbers' war is on in St. Paul.

Union shops in the Dayton's Bluff district have already slashed their prices to meet those established by one nonunion shop, and are operating outside of the union schedule of hours.

The move has been sanctioned by the union.

With haircuts selling at 35 cents each and other tonorial activities retailing at proportionate prices, the shops of the Dayton's Bluff district were swarming today with residents eager to take advantage of the price before the barbers changed their minds.

Possibility of a city-wide reduction, temporarily, was seen by some.

No official statement relative to the price cut was obtainable at headquarters of Journeymen Barbers' Local No. 31, official union organization in St. Paul.

"The temporary price cuts are a part of the program to give St. Paul a real barber system by forcing the shops to offer the best in service, sanitation and satisfaction," one union barber said.

"One shop in the East 7th street district, a nonunion shop, has been operating 13 to 14 hours daily and maintaining no price schedule whatever—getting what it can."

"In this shop the employed barbers work on a commission basis entirely. They are not union men."

"In union shops, barbers are not getting fabulous salaries. They are receiving 38 cents an hour for their work—lowest wage scale of any unionized specialists."

"Union shops cannot furnish satisfactory service to the public at less than the standard prices now in effect."

PRINCE OF WALES STYLES ARBITER FOR BRAZIL MEN

(By United Press)
Rio de Janeiro, Aug. 13.—Although the Prince of Wales does not intend to visit Brazil on his South American tour, simply because he has not as yet received any official invitation to stop off at Brazilian ports when he comes this way, Brazilian men are dressed for the occasion in event His Royal Highness gets a bid later on and decides to call in at Rio.

After Wales' last visit to the United States and the tremendous change in the cut of men's clothing resulting from that visit, Brazilians have also left the tight fitting trousers and corset-shaped coats for the wide and baggy trousers and short rounded coats long since so popular in England.

Although the English gentleman's cut of suits was known to Brazilians for years previous it was not until Americans followed suit after the last trip of Wales to the United States, and American films showed what Americans were wearing, that the Brazilian men fell in line and began cutting their breeches wider and their coats roomier and shorter.

Now, however, that American films have shown Brazilians what the American man-about-town is wearing, the Brazilian is not considered well dressed who wears anything else but the Prince's own as introduced into Brazil by way of the United States.

Measuring Mountain

The height of a mountain may be determined in several ways—by the aneroid barometer or by vertical angles and also by the line of a spirit level. This is known as leveling, and is considered the most accurate procedure.

RAIL-BUS ARGUMENT

THE rail-bus argument is engrossing the attention of many towns. At bus hearings conducted by the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission arguments are advanced by both sides.

Recently a hearing of representatives of railroads and busses was held at Owatonna and the chamber of commerce supplied the rostrum. At the close of the talks, the Owatonna chamber of commerce refused to take any action on the request of railroads to act toward the halting of bus competition, which the roads declare are cutting their passenger traffic to a point where all trains run at a loss.

The chamber decided on what we regard as a policy of "watchful waiting." They decided that support of one or the other side of the question was a matter for individual consideration.

Nevertheless, we are of opinion that this rail-bus controversy affects every town that has the service of both. Competition may become so ruinous that rails may be pulled up. No one can compel a public utility to continue service when it can prove that it is conducting its services at a loss.

The railroad is faced with the competition of the busses, as well as the individual automobile owner. The busses, as has been asserted by some of its spokesmen, are more concerned with combatting the individual car owner. The bus men claim they want to make their bus service so convenient and attractive that the individual car owner will leave his car in his garage and take to riding on the bus as a cheaper mode of conveyance than driving his own car.

The short haul passenger business of the railways is being seriously affected and that effect is noticeable at the union depots in St. Paul and Minneapolis, where many trains have been taken off the time tables.

The busses are endeavoring to give prompt daily service and by their showing made strive to secure a permanent place in the sun of public opinion. The railways in the early days faced a river and canal transportation competition, but this bus competition with its hitherto flexible routes, its comparatively cheap fares and its local time tables is a problem in short haul passenger competition that offers some difficult points for the railroads to analyze and to overcome.

MODERN HANDWRITING

THE handwriting on the wall in Biblical days was of the most legible kind. The handwriting of these modern days, however, is enough to make a man lose his temper. Some people seem to delight in evolving a script which can hardly be deciphered. And the average man glories in a signature which only an experienced teller can read. We know a local man whose signature looks like a dust cloud in summer time.

And the young folks, many of them, have a penmanship all their own. Generally speaking, says the Chicago Tribune, we are sympathetic with the young folks of the land. That is to say, neither in their dress nor manners do they cause us undue alarm. Their penmanship, however, is something quite different and altogether blameworthy. It's not entirely their fault, but rather, we suspect, the fault of a system of writing which was introduced into the schools some eight or ten years ago.

Penmanship can have only two virtues: Legibility and beauty. On a scale of 100, the new scrawling rates 34 in legibility and something less than zero esthetically. We might bear with the youngsters, however, were there any improvement as they advance toward maturity. There is none.

Something shapeless in the shaping of their letters appears to be at the root of the matter. The hand of a young lady old enough to vote and smoke is as immature as that of a third grader. She can't conceal her deficiency behind a screen of unnecessary strokes.

At its copybook best, the new writing is rococo; at its very general worst, it is rococo-in-ruins. It looks to us like a conspiracy on the part of the typewriter manufacturers.

WAR has been declared on the itinerant bell ringer and the campaign has been espoused by the Anoka Herald, Bemidji Daily Pioneer, the Clay County Herald of Hawley, THE BRAINERD DISPATCH and other newspapers.

As has been stated by THE DISPATCH, one should remember that no criticism is leveled against the soliciting of local merchants or local agents, who may put on sales campaigns, or the solicitation of farmers who wish to dispose of garden and other produce.

The criticism is leveled at the out of town agent and canvasser, whose success in his pursuit takes away legitimate business from an established business man in Brainerd.

THE DISPATCH has printed two-color cards, free for the asking, which may be placed on front or back door, giving notice that "the occupants of this home buy only of Brainerd merchants and Crow Wing county farmers. Please do not waste our time and yours."

JOURNALISM IN THE OLD DAYS

JOURNALISM in the old days had a wide latitude and the editors expressed their opinions freely, backing them up with fist fights, if necessary. Society nowadays does not tolerate such ethics.

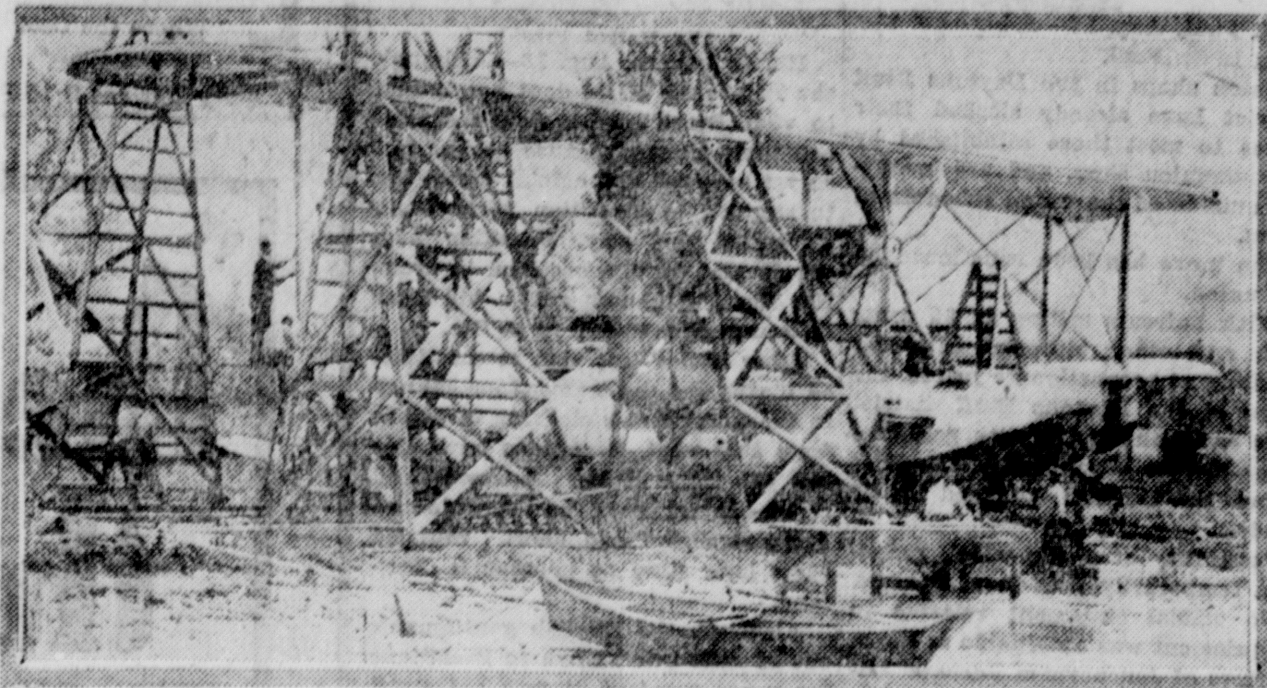

In the old days in Brainerd one editor called the other a monkey and ran a circus out of a monkey to embellish his article. A husky lumberjack one time started out to "lick" Col. Stivers. The colonel knew he was no match physically for the hulking lumberjack sprawling in the office chair.

He motioned him to a seat near the stove and soon the warm air got in his work and the son of the forest fell asleep and forgot all about his mission of destruction.

In the old days journalism was too much a personal matter. With few men on the paper, an editor's personality tinged the whole paper. Nowadays many men and many interests make up a paper and the personal tone is lost.

THE best corners in town are being used for filling stations, says the Mahanomen Pioneer, following a custom established long before the automobile was discovered.

bers without delay, in order that Breezy Point may be notified of the number that are to be served at this dinner.

Show Region at Height of Activity
This is an opportunity to present the possibilities of the local lake region while it is at the height of its summer season. Brainerd, too, will be at its best, being decorated for the Elks convention which starts the next day. In all, it is held to be the most opportune time for holding this dinner, and a very favorable impression will no doubt be made upon the honor guests.

It is one of the purposes of the dinner to induce the railways entering Minnesota, to strongly advertise the Brainerd lake region in their literature, in the same way the Yellowstone Park, Glacier Park and other summer playgrounds are featured. This would induce many to come to Brainerd from all sections of the United States, people who have never heard of this particular vacation-land before. Advertising of this kind, when once started, will carry itself on from the weight of its own results, it is believed, and will put Brainerd on the tourist's map in large letters.

Benefits of Inestimable Value
The benefits to be derived from Wednesday's meeting, especially to Brainerd merchants and resort owners in this vicinity, cannot be estimated. If a large, representative number of business men attend this dinner at Breezy Point, it will show the railway officials that this city is deeply interested in the matter, and will have a great deal of weight in influencing them to include this city in their advertising. If the response from the business men is lukewarm, and only a few greet the visitors, the desired results will not be forthcoming, and the Lions' effort to promote one of this territory's great resources will have failed.

Worse

"They have never spoken since they took part in private theatricals," said the sharp-tongued miss.
"I see; professional jealousy."
"Oh, dear, no; something far worse. It's amateur jealousy."

His Own Selection

"So you claim to be a literary man?"
"Yes, sir; I wrote that book, 'A Dozen Ways of Making a Living.'"
"And yet you are begging!"
"Yes, sir; that was one of the ways."

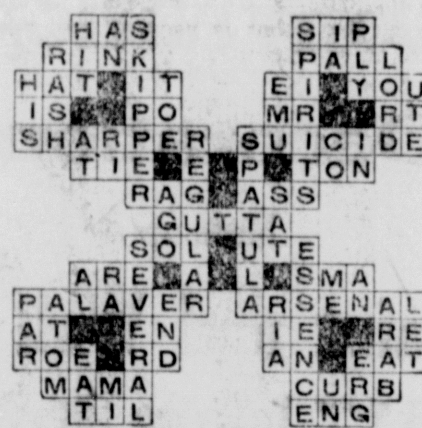

Hard to Understand

HERBERT HOOVER TELLS STORY OF "PRICE FIXING"

GRAIN REPORT SHOWS WAR PRICE FIXING SAVED FARMERS

ALLIES PLANNED POOLING PURCHASES TO BREAK MARKET

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Aug. 12.—After eight years of silence, Herbert Hoover has at last come forward with the inside story of the fixing of the price of wheat at $2.20 per bushel during the war.

The tale, which is unfolded in a foreword to a final report on the activities of the United States Grain Corporation prepared by Dr. Frank M. Surface, economist, is amazing in that it discloses—

1. That the Allies had combined in 1917 to buy wheat from American farmers at not more than $1.50 per bushel.

2. That instead of being deprived of huge war time profits by the government's intervention, as the farmers have believed ever since, they actually were saved from "complete disaster" which menaced them, unsuspecting in the Allies' agreement.

3. That Hoover himself had no part in fixing the $2.20 price.

Hoover Not Responsible

Most significant, perhaps, is the last disclosure. In all the eight years since the war, Hoover has borne the burden of the almost unanimous hostility of American farmers for his supposed part in fixing the price.

They held him personally responsible for being cut off from profits which they believed they would have made if the price had not been arbitrarily set. More than anything else, this belief among farmers has kept Hoover from being in the front rank of presidential contenders. Party leaders have felt that so long as he bore the farmers' dislike he could not be regarded seriously as a candidate.

If Hoover's story is now accepted by his former enemies, the Commerce Secretary must take on new stature as a political figure.

Asked by Cabinet to Explain

After explaining that "because of misunderstanding and misrepresentation which has grown up over the action of the Committee appointed by President Wilson in August, 1917, to determine a fair price for wheat," several members of the committee had asked him to make a complete review of the episode, Hoover said: "The time has now come when certain factors in our war relations, relative to wheat, can be disclosed because they have so far passed into history as to be of domestic interest only. Furthermore, sufficient time has now elapsed so that a broad perspective can be given of the wheat operations during the war.

"Dr. Frank M. Surface, whose reputation as an agricultural economist needs no reference, has made a thorough study of the records of these war organizations and, for the first time, a report has been prepared based on a full examination of these records.

Farmer Saved From Disaster

"Dr. Surface's objective view easily demonstrates that the American farmer was saved from what otherwise would have been a complete disaster due to certain conditions created by the war and effectively dissipates the myth that price guarantees were entered into for any other purpose or any other result than to protect the farmers' interest.

"In July, 1917, as United States Food Administrator, I presented to the President certain facts which resulted in the appointment of the Committee to consider the situation. Briefly these facts were: that, in the spring of 1917, the Allies, by bidding against each other, had forced the price of wheat from $1.50 to over $3.00 per bushel.

"In order to abolish this competition between themselves, the Allies governments before we came into the war had consolidated their purchasing of world wheat into one buying agency. Through control of world shipping and the blockade against the enemy, this agency was the sole buyer of our wheat.

Foreign Price Fixing

"The domestic price of wheat to the American farmer was fixed by the price which could be realized for the export surplus. As export buying was all in one hand, the operation of the law of supply and demand had been abolished and the price of wheat to the American farmer, therefore, would be determined by the price which this buying agency determined to pay. Price fixing for American wheat was thus already under way in foreign lands. Congress had provided a minimum price of only $2.00 per bushel for the 1918 crop and it had made no provision for the 1917 crop then being harvested.

"The Allied governments had fixed prices of wheat in their own countries at about $1.80 per bushel, and in order to lay down American wheat at this price they considered that they should pay the American farmer about $1.50 per bushel at Chicago for the 1917 crop.

"In support of this contention their agents contended that any higher price to the American farmer would require an increase in the price of bread in the Allied countries; that the American farmer had realized only about $1.30 per bushel for his previous year's wheat despite the $3.00 corner on the Chicago market which occurred after nearly 95 per cent of all the wheat had left the farms.

Other Wheat Cheaper

"They also pointed out that they could purchase abundant supplies of wheat in Argentina and Australia at $1.50 per bushel or less and the only reason they were prevented from availing themselves of such cheaper supplies by the longer voyages to these other markets was because of the demand of the American Government for the transportation of our troops and supplies.

"In view of these determinations, it was clear that unless action should be taken on our part, the American farmer would receive $1.50 per bushel for his wheat and the price was already falling rapidly toward that level. I and my colleagues considered that a situation was impending of the greatest injustice and danger to the American farmers and we recommended to the President that our Government should take control of the market, and that he should assemble a committee predominantly representing the agricultural interests of the country, which should be called on to consider the situation, and, if they thought it wise, to determine what would be a fair price for the 1917 crop.

"Moreover, it was my desire that the farmer through this committee would have an opportunity to consider the Congressional minimum of $2.00 per bushel which was bound to become the price in the following year unless some action was taken.

President's Committee

"The President's Committee, after exhausted examination, recommended to the President that a fair price for the 1917 crop would be $2.20 per bushel for No. 1 Northern Wheat at Chicago with appropriate differentials for other grades and markets. The President accepted these recommendations and directed that the Food Administration should carry them into effect.

"I feel free to praise the endeavors of the Committee, because, contrary to popular belief neither I nor Mr. Julius Barnes, nor my other colleagues in the Food Administration, participated in the deliberation or recommendations of that committee as to prices. That the farmer would have realized far less for his wheat without the important and courageous action of the committee is certain."

ous action of the committee is certain."

Hoover referred to a statement, apparently lost sight of, in support of his contention that he never participated in the fixing of the price, which he said President Wilson had issued saying: "Mr. Hoover at his express wish, has taken no part in the deliberations of the committee, on whose recommendation I determine the Government's fair price, nor has he in any way intimated an opinion regarding that price."

BATTERED AND BRUISED WHILE DEFENDING SON

MRS. MORRIS FOX FIGHTS FOR LIFE IN ST. PAUL HOSPITAL

500 NEIGHBORS IN DEMONSTRATION AGAINST ALIEN NEIGHBOR

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Battered and bruised, Mrs. Morris Fox is fighting for her life in Ancker hospital today for defending her five-year-old son from a crazed neighbor.

Five hundred neighbors who gathered about the Fox home Wednesday night started deportation proceedings today to oust Paul Golz, an alien, from the exclusive residential section of St. Paul, after their attempt at mob rule was stopped by police.

Playing in the front yard, Leo, five-year-old son of Mrs. Fox, annoyed Golz, he contends—so he proceeded to beat him with a thick three-foot stick. Rushing to her son's aid, Mrs. Fox, frail and slight, bore the brunt of the attack.

Golz continued to rain blows on her head and body after she had swooned to the ground until neighbors succeeded in beating him off. Residents of the district gathered.

Police parted a threatened lynching party.

NEW FLOWERS DENIED U. S.

DR. MARLATT'S BULB EMBARGO WILL SHUT OUT IMPROVED DAFFODILS

If Dr. C. L. Marlatt, chairman of the Federal Horticultural Board, succeeds in enforcing his embargo against narcissus bulbs January 1, 1926, new varieties of narcissi such as are introduced each fall from European growers will become a thing of the past in American gardens. The production of new varieties is too slow a process for the American commercial grower. It requires from five to six years to flower a new variety from seed and there is then only a single bulb of it in the world. It requires at least ten years more before it can be produced in sufficient quantity to be sold at a reasonable price.

European amateurs and commercial growers alike have been producing new varieties for many years from seed sown each year, placing them on the market as fast as stocks were produced. American gardens will be cut off from these novelties for an indefinite time and the new huge trumpet daffodils which have begun to come to our gardens will be lost to us.

And all this because the Federal Horticultural board declares that daffodil bulbs might bring in insects which would attack our onion crops although they have been coming in for 200 years and nobody has lost an onion from daffodil flies or daffodil eelworms to date.

BUSH HATED TO LEAVE HIS YANKEE PALS

ST. LOUIS FANS ARE CHEERING
FOR HIM
NOW

IN THREE SEASONS HE BEAT
THE BROWNS SEVENTEEN
STRAIGHT

(From Boston Traveler)

"You can't make it too strong in telling every one that I am delighted with my new job," declared Joe Bush, famous "Bullet Joe" when your correspondent asked him this morning how he liked the transfer from the Yankees to the Browns. "George Sisler is a great fellow to play with and be with. Yes," he added with a smile, "the old boy is happy in his new uniform."

"After what happened on more than one occasion during last season in my relations with Miller Huggins I knew I was slated to go elsewhere. It was just a question of which club would offer the best trade."

"When I realized conditions I hoped that I would go back to Philadelphia, which is my home and also the scene of my early playing days in the American league. A deal was under way which would have sent me back to Connie Mack, but it fell through. It looked for a while as if it would be completed. Then St. Louis made an attractive offer and it was accepted."

"I regretted very much to leave my comrades on the Yankee club. They were a great bunch of fellows. It was hard to say good-by to Sam Jones, who was my roommate for seven years while with the Red Sox and Yankees. No two ball players ever were closer than Sam and I."

"But conditions have been ideal with the St. Louis club and I am perfectly satisfied. It is wonderful the way I have been treated by the fans in St. Louis. They used to hate the sight of me when I was a Yankee. During three seasons I beat the Browns 17 straight games. Every time I made my appearance as a Yankee on the field in St. Louis I would be greeted with boos."

"The chorus would be twice as strong when I was pitching and when I went to bat. Now the transformation is complete. They have been cheering for me as much as they formerly cheered against me. Early this season I was afflicted with sinus trouble and I really have not gotten over it yet."

"As a consequence I was not going good. Every time I would be batted out of the box I would be cheered as lustily as if I made a home run with the bases filled. Whenever I stepped to the plate I was saluted. On one occasion it seemed as if they kept yelling for 10 minutes."

"I never had such an experience in all my baseball life. It seems now like a dream to me, yet it is a reality. Naturally it was a lot of consolation to play ball under such conditions. It also is a great relief to be playing for a man like Sisler."

Skinny Men and Women Gain 5 Lbs.
in 30 Days or Money Back

My Dear Friends:

After my attack of Flu I was thin, rundown and weak. I had a sallow complexion, my cheeks were sunk in and I was continually troubled with gas on my stomach. I felt stuffy and had lost my appetite. I had read about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and decided to give them a trial. At once, I began to pick up an appetite, my cheeks filled out and my complexion became healthy looking and I gained 15 pounds in six weeks and am very thankful for what McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets did for me.

POLITICAL STIR IN SOUTH DAKOTA

CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICANS
CALLED IN CONFERENCE
BY FORMER GOVERNOR

(By United Press)

Huron, Aug. 13.—Citizens of South Dakota are to be given "those safe and healthy principles of government" after the state is rid of its republican parasites.

Conservative republicans called in conference Wednesday by Sam Elrod, former governor resolved, to take this action so that the party concepts of President Coolidge may be brought to the people who gave him a 25,000 majority last fall.

"We regret," a resolution read, "that Calvin Coolidge has not had loyal support of present senators from this republican state in his program of better government."

STATE SLASHES GASOLINE PRICE
ANOTHER CENT
TODAY

EFFECTIVE AT ALL STATE OWN-ED FILLING STA-TIONS

(By United Press)

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 13.—Another battle is being waged in the South Dakota gasoline war today following a greater offensive by the state in slashing gasoline prices another cent at state owned filling stations.

With today's reduction enabled by lower prices at refineries, state owned filling stations are underselling stations operated by the Standard Oil and independent companies five cents a gallon.

Delay in the first attack by the White Eagle Company of St. Paul which instituted suit to test the validity of the action of the state in retailing gasoline was decided in the supreme court Wednesday. Arguments were heard in the case, but the state was allowed ten days to file an answer.

Stations are being operated by the state at Watertown, Brookings, Aberdeen, Huron, Mitchell and Madison.

Scene from "THE RANGER OF THE BIG PINES"
A Vitaphone Picture

"The Ranger of the Big Pines" Deals
With Western Foresters

"The Ranger of the Big Pines," the Vitaphone picturization of Hamlin Garland's novel, "Cavanagh, Forest Ranger," will begin a two-days' run at the Lyceum theatre tonight. The cast, headed by Kenneth Harlan, includes Helene Costello, Eulalie Jensen, Will Walling, Lew Harvey, Robert J. Graves, Eugene Paulette, Harvey Clark and Joan Standing.

Harlan plays Ross Cavanagh, a strong, handsome forest ranger who falls in love with Virginia Weatherford (Helene Costello). Virginia's mother, Lize Weatherford (Eulalie Jensen), is a slatternly hotelkeeper whose daughter has been educated in the east and who finds this blowy woman a keen disappointment.

The girl is lovely and charming and Ross fights against his growing love for her, fearing the force of her heredity. He has befriended an old cattleman whom he discovers is Virginia's father insistent upon remaining dead to his wife and daughter; an interesting character played by Eugene Paulette.

Friday and Saturday

Here is a new type that threatens to equal if not outlive the "sheik" and the "flapper." The new editions of modern American vocabularies have added the very latest of classifications—the Spaniard. As a native or citizen of Spain, the Spaniard is erased from American speech.

In its place we now find the new type of lover—the Spaniard. He is all man, the cynosure of feminine eyes. Handsome, but not sleek. Distinctly dressed but no extremes.

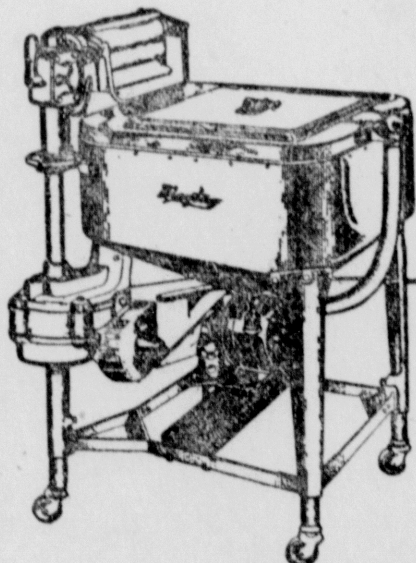

Appealing personality, undaunted courage, excellent ability in many endeavors, and a man among men as well as women. That's "The Spaniard."

(By United Press)

Chicago, Aug. 13.—An Eskimo quartet singing folk songs within 11 degrees of the North Pole entertained a little group of radio enthusiasts at the Arlington Heights radio experiment station here. Loud and clear, the music came through the air and listeners declared the test a success.

The music was broadcast from the deck of the ship, Peary of the MacMillan arctic expedition.

Same Fine Studebaker Coach —but at a new low One-Profit price

BECAUSE all Studebaker cars are manufactured on the one-profit basis, we have been able to reduce the price of the Standard Six Coach without sacrificing any of the equipment or quality which made it a big seller at a higher price.

Scientific design, better materials, and finer workmanship distinguish it. And the following self-evident superiorities make it more up-to-date than the newest "yearly models":

Excess Power—According to the rating of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce this is the most powerful car of its size and weight.

Abundant Room—Room to stretch your legs—room to enter or leave without disturbing occupant of folding seat.

Sturdy Body Construction—Fine northern ash and hard maple are used. We pay a premium to get the best quality steel.

Full-size Balloon Tires—for which the steering gear, fenders and even the body lines are specially designed.

Automatic Spark Control—eliminating the usual spark lever on steering wheel.

Safety Lighting Control—on the steering wheel.

Instruments—including 8-day clock, gasoline gauge, speedometer, oil-pressure gauge and ammeter, in single grouping under glass, on beautiful silver-faced dial.

Improved One-piece Windshield—automatic windshield cleaner, weather-proof visor, rear-view mirror, cowl lights and cowl ventilator.

Coincidental Lock—to ignition and steering wheel, which serves to reduce the theft insurance rate on Studebaker cars.

New-type Cowl Ventilator—foot operated.

There are only two cars manufactured on the one-profit basis—the Studebaker in the fine-car field, and the Ford in the low-price field. Only in these two cases does one company in its own plants and with its own centralized organization make all bodies, all engines, all clutches, steering gears, differentials, springs, gear sets, gray iron castings, and drop forgings.

Studebaker has no "yearly models," but instead keeps its cars constantly up to date. Therefore this Standard Six Coach is ahead of the newest "yearly model," yet owners are protected from the artificial depreciation which has cut millions of dollars from the resale value of many makes during the past 30 days.

ODD FELLOWS ANNUAL OUTING

Various Branches of the Order and Friends to Meet at I. U. White Lake Home

ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 16TH

Members to Bring Picnic Baskets, Committee Supplies Coffee and Cream

The annual outing of the members of the various branches of the Odd Fellows order and their friends will be held at the summer home of I. U. White at Gull lake on next Sunday, August 16th.

Each member is to bring a basket with sufficient food to care for his or her family and at least one guest, the committee supplying the coffee and cream.

Races and games for the youngsters, with suitable prizes and a kiten ball game for the men is part of the program, with a large launch to take all who wish for a ride around the lake at any time during the day.

Beginning at 2:30 o'clock a program of speaking and music will be given with Rev. Frederick Errington of Moorhead as the principal speaker. Community singing with an experienced leader will be one of the popular features of the outing.

Automobiles will be provided for those who have no means of conveyance, and will leave the I. O. O. F. building on South Sixth street at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Annual picnics in the past have been held at the White home on Gull lake, and have proved exceptionally successful. Members of the order and their friends have come to look forward to this event with a great deal of anticipation and from the plans of the committee in charge there will be no disappointments at Sunday's picnic.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Marie Gibson and Paul Walters Kruse, to be Married at Duluth

Miss Marie Gibson, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Gibson, North Fifth street, has chosen August 18th as the date of her marriage to Paul Walters Kruse, of Hibbing, formerly of Ishpeming, Michigan.

Miss Gibson, popular member of the younger set, is being honored at a number of charming social functions before her departure to Duluth, at which place the ceremony will be performed.

On Tuesday, her cousins, the Misses Marie and Jane Clark, were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the Clark home. Huge silver vases of hollyhocks and gladioli, with smaller baskets of various garden flowers, decorated the rooms. A miniature bride with the conventional bridal procedure of tiny lighted tapers, baskets of baby breath and white ribbons formed the table decorations on which the gifts were arranged.

Another pre-nuptial affair in compliment to Miss Gibson was a 1:30 o'clock bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Milton Mahlum at her home in St. Cloud this Thursday afternoon.

On Saturday Mrs. W. Ray Cleary will entertain at a bridge in honor of Miss Gibson.

Blumenthal-Cullen

The Phillipsburg Mail, of Phillipsburg, Montana, in its issue of August 7th, contains an account of the wedding of Miss Marie Cullen of Brainerd. The following is reprinted from that paper:

A wedding of unusual interest to the Mail's readers was solemnized in Missoula last Saturday evening, August 1st, when Albert Blumenthal and Miss Marie Cullen were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. P. Meade of St. Anthony's Catholic church of that city. Miss Florence Blumenthal was bridesmaid and W. R. Wyatt, principal of the Powell county high school, was best man.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blumenthal and is a junior at the University of Montana where he has been prominent in athletics. His bride is well known in this city, where she has been employed as an instructor in the grade schools. She returned to Montana last week after spending the summer at her home in Brainerd.

Miss Cullen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cullen, 117 Gillis avenue, Northeast. She is a graduate of the local schools and the Brainerd Commercial College. Before going to Montana she was a teacher in the schools at Aitkin. Her many friends in the city will join with the Dispatch in offering congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds.

Information not included in the Mail's story is to the effect that a dinner was served to the bridal party at the home of the groom's parents following the pleasing ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Blumenthal will make their home in Montana.

SHIMMY RUMBLINGS REVEALED IN MONTANA

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—When that "mammy" shook her shimmy-rumbly resembling landlides or fair sized earthquakes rolled out of the foothills of Montana.

Word of the "shake-down" contest staged at Glacier Park, Montana, bringing together recognized artists, dark horses, and amateurs in the gentle art of "struttin'"—was received here today.

Arrangements had been completed—first prize had been conceded to a stalwart squaw of the park reservation when Big Bertha, pride of the mountains, came out of the great open spaces where men are men and women "can't be still."

Big Bertha—four hundred pounds heavy—failed to experience much competition in the tom-tom shimmy event—shaking not only herself but every rafter in the judges stand.

Squaws of twelve Indian tribes, entered in the event conducted contests—with closed entries—after Bertha had ambled off to her home in the foothills.

AMUN RA AND MARIPOSA COMING

These and a Host of Other Flowers to Greet the Many Visitors

AT BRAINERD FLOWER SHOW

Dahlias Have Become Among Most Popular Flowers in This Section

Amun Ra, Mariposa, Pride of California, Ballet Girl, Break O'Day, Millionaire, Vater Rhein, Attraction and a host of similar names will greet the visitors at the annual garden flower show, who are interested in the big dahlia exhibit.

Dahlias have become a most popular flower during the past several years. Originally a native of Mexico, it was developed by a native of Sweden named Dahl, to whose name "ia" was added in naming this flower.

There are now over seven thousand different varieties of dahlias catalogued, and each year sees a new lot which are improvements on those developed in past years.

It is expected that there will be fifty or seventy-five different varieties of dahlias exhibited at the coming flower show. In the main these are of the better varieties and are well worth seeing.

The show is to be held at the courthouse on August 25th and 26th, and promises to have a record attendance as well as a record exhibit, for in addition to a large showing of dahlias there is expected to be a very fine exhibit of gladioli.

Premium lists are now ready and may be secured from C. W. Mahlum of the county garden flower society.

EXTENDED MOTOR TRIP

Rev. A. G. Patterson, Family and Two Sisters Visited in Northern Part of State

Rev. A. G. Patterson and family and his two sisters returned Wednesday from an extended motor trip through the northern part of the state.

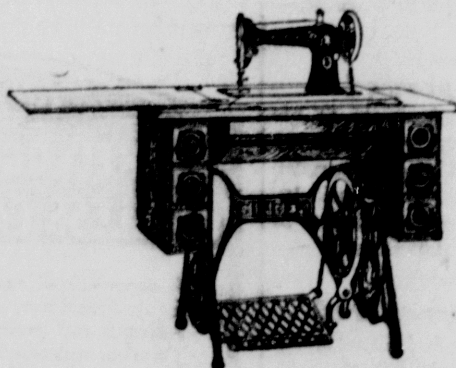

Going by way of Red Lake and International Falls to Warroad and returning through Thief River Falls and Detroit the party enjoyed a most delightful trip, camping along the route and seeing the sights along the way.

A special thrill was experienced about two miles from Warroad when a big black bear ambled across the road in front of the automobile.

The Pattersons will spend the balance of their vacation at their summer cottage at Hubert lake.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

M. G. E. Senn's Birthday Anniversary Observed by Party of 12 Friends

A very delicious dinner was served at seven o'clock Wednesday evening at the G. E. Senn cottage on North Long lake to a party of twelve friends, the occasion being Mrs. Senn's birthday.

She was the recipient of a number of beautiful bouquets as well as many other gifts. The evening was spent in playing games and in vocal and instrumental music.

The guests departed at a late hour having enjoyed themselves to the utmost and wishing Mrs. Senn many happy returns of the day.

Ice Cream Social

Tomorrow evening the "Always Faithful" class of the Swedish Bethany church will hold an ice cream and cake social on the church lawn, starting at 5 o'clock and continuing until a late hour. If the weather is rainy or cold they will serve in the church.

This class is composed of boys and girls between the ages of 11 and 14 years, and they wish to do their bit in increasing the building fund. Miss Hazel Fallquist is the class president. Every member of the class has been busy making preparations to serve a large crowd promptly.

Streetcar Motorman Tagged by Traffic Cop

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—At last a streetcar motorman has been "tagged."

He is Benjamin Portion, 791 E. 7th street, motorman on a Snelling-Minnehaha street car.

Motorcycle Policeman Benjamin Bodisch of the Minneapolis police department is preferring the charges. He claims he was chasing a speeding motorist Tuesday and attempted to make a left turn in front of the street car.

The motorman ignored his signals and started the car across a street intersection with the result that there was a near collision.

Bodisch did not appear in Minneapolis traffic court this morning owing to the sudden illness of a brother in Rochester, Minn., where his presence was required.

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox Voice Their Appreciation

Ernest E. Fox and family, Mr. Levsey and family, Mr. Lambert and sons Harold and Elmer, all of Aurora, Ill., spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox, an uncle of Ernest, whom he had not seen since early childhood.

The visitors enjoyed the accommodations at the Brainerd tourist park, saying that it is the best arranged and most commodious they have stopped at since leaving their home.

The party very much enjoyed Minnesota scenery, the pines, lakes and the fishing. They caught an abundance of crappies, bass and pickerel in this vicinity.

A return trip to Brainerd for next summer is already being planned, at which time the party will be enlarged by the addition of Ernest Fox's two brothers and their families, at which time a longer visit will be made. The visitors left for Aurora on Thursday morning.

SPORT A BUSINESS FOR PROFESSIONALS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Aug. 13.—There is so much bunk written about the lives of professional baseball players and boxers that it is refreshing to hear an occasional hero come out and tell the truth about his business.

The first line written about a new ring champion concerns the great love that he has for his mother, as if love of a mother is so unusual that it should be worthy of comment.

The next line always concerns the way the fighter started in his racket and it always tells the same story. He was brought up in the tenements where he had to fight the bully of the block or stay in the tenement and that he took up professional fighting because he liked it.

Final devotion isn't considered so extraordinary in baseball that it should be featured in writing about a hero of the diamond, but the big star always got his start on the corner lot and succeeded in getting to the top because of a consuming love for the grand old national pastime.

It is refreshing to hear a nice, mild-mannered youngster, like Charley Rosenberg, the bantamweight champion of the world, tell the truth about his purpose in becoming a professional fighter.

"I didn't have to fight as a kid, and I wasn't born in a tough tenement district," Rosenberg says. "I took up fighting because I thought it was the quickest way for a boy with a limited education to make money. I'm staying in the boxing game just for a stake. I'm not in love with the business and I want to get out of it as soon as I have enough money to set me up in a good real estate business. I've got a little money now and I'm already building up a business. I'm going to save my money and I won't have any regrets when I'm through."

Another who blasts popular romance that is painted around a baseball hero is Earl McNeely, the young outfield star of the Washington Senators, whose hit won the last world's series against the New York Giants.

McNeely admits that he has no consuming love for baseball and that he is in the game purely for business reasons. He wasn't born with a baseball in his hands. He didn't play on the sand lots and didn't play at all until he was nineteen years old.

"When I had a chance to play professional baseball," he says, "I went into it only because I wanted to get a bankroll. I took a course in civil engineering and worked some in a bank, but found out that those who succeeded quickest in any profession were those who started out with a bankroll, and it is the old bankroll that I'm after."

Abe Goldstein, even when he was the bantamweight champion, never admitted that he liked the professional ring. He, too, said it was the big money that came quick that started him in the game and is keeping him there.

ADVANCE STEP NEARER TO 2ND HALF CHAMPION

FIGHT FOR VICTORY IN TWI- LIGHT CITY LEAGUE IS CLOSE ONE

INTERESTING GAMES AFFORDED TO THE LOCAL FANS

Game tonight, 6:00 P. M.
Y. M. C. A. vs. B. A. C.
New Municipal Diamond

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
A. O. U. W.	3	2	3	.600
Y. M. C. A.	4	3	1	.571
B. P. O. E.	4	4	0	.500
B. A. C.	2	4	2	.333

The Y. M. C. A. advanced a notch nearer the second half championship by downing the Elks in a six-inning affair last night, 4-3. They still have two games to play, and must win both to be sure of the first place, with a chance even then of having to share with the Workmen. The fight for victory this half is a close one.

Starting with a bang in the first inning, the Y scored two in that frame, and two in the third. With one gone, LeNeau doubled to left, and would perhaps have made third on the hit, if he had not turned his ankle in running. Peterson hit a hard liner through the infield scoring Dillan, who ran for LeNeau. Orth singled to score Peterson.

In the third, LeNeau again started the works going by singling, and Swanson took his place on the bases. Peterson again delivered, to score Swanson, who had taken second on Hanson's error of Van Walk's peg. Peterson reached second on the throw-in, and came home on Dillan's hit over Bedal's head in left. This ended the scoring for the Y.

The Elks made one in the fourth, on Hanson's hit and Ziebell's hard single, coupled with a passed ball which allowed Hanson to take second. They scored two in the sixth, Bedal starting by singling, Hanson flied to Orth, Ziebell forced Bedal, Shello singled, both runners advanced on a passed ball, and came home when Stallman's infield tap was mishandled.

The game was another good one to watch. There was plenty of hitting to make it interesting for spectators, and some good defensive playing on both sides. Peterson, with a perfect day at bat, getting three hits in as many times up, and LeNeau, with a double and single, were the hitting stars.

Tonight the Y. M. C. A. and B. A. C. play. Either Jones or Soderlund will throw for the B. A. C., with Peterson on the mound for the Y. M. C. A.

FAMOUS PARTY OF 200 TOURED THE PACIFIC NORTH- WEST

Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—The famous party of golfing tourists who have been visiting the principal courses of the Pacific northwest, will arrive in Minneapolis Saturday morning for exhibitions at the Bloomington and Country club courses. More than 200 prominent businessmen and golfers from virtually every section of the country makes up the personnel of the delegation who will be guests of the two clubs and the Civic and Commerce association during their stay here.

Such noted golfers and businessmen as Jim Barnes, British open champion; Jock Hutchison, former British and national open champion; Chick Evans, former national and western amateur title holder; Keefe Carter, winner of the 1925 western amateur; Commissioner of Baseball K. M. Landis; Captain E. Carter of Chicago; A. T. Packard, managing editor of the Golfers' magazine; Charles O. Pfeil, president of the Western Golf association, are listed in the party.

Barnes, Hutchinson, Evans and Carter undoubtedly will be paired off against star local golfers in special exhibition matches at the Bloomington and Country clubs Saturday.—Minneapolis Tribune.

Former Iowa Swimmer To Race in A. A. U. Meet

Iowa City, Ia., Aug. 13.—Irving (Ears) Weber, former Hawkeye backstroke star, has come back after six months' training and threatens both the 100-yard and the 220-yard junior A. A. U. records. He left here Monday for the Indianapolis meet Aug. 13 and 14, and predicted that he would bring back championships in both events.

BIG TEN STARS IN FOOTBALL ARE WRESTLING STUDIES

GRANGE, BACKWARD IN STUD- IES BECAUSE OF SICKNESS, IS NOW STUDYING UP

DUVAL, SHORT ON SCHOLARSHIP LAST YEAR, MAKES GRADE FOR 1925 TEAM

(By United Press)
Chicago, Aug. 13.—With the football season looming on the horizon, stars of the Western conference are getting ready for a campaign that is at present more important than their ball toting, tossing or catching that of getting eligible.

Harold "Red" Grange, sterling Illinois halfback, received a "condition" in "Transportation 1," a subject in commerce school. Every night at Wheaton, after laying aside the ice tongs, the Illinois captain went into session with a self-appointed body of tutors who have made it their business to see that he who has been called the greatest player of all time plays football this fall.

Grange is generally rated a better than average student, but during last winter he was laid up with a siege of mumps, which kept him away from the university for nearly a month. He caught up with all his other studies save Transportation.

At the University of Chicago the bugaboo has been chased into a corner of Staggs field and downed. "Chuck" Duval, whom loyal Maroons say will fade Grange and "Moon" Baker, Northwestern star this season, have become eligible. Duval, downed last year by scholarship, and out of the game when the Staggs men most needed a capable passer, has made the grade for the 1925 team. So has Yelsley, who is alleged to be the "coming end."

At Northwestern, Baker is on the anxious seat with Grange, but a condition is all he has to remove, and a summer session course in which he is excelling in his work, is all set to remove the "con."

At the University of Wisconsin the new coach and athletic director, Geo. Little, will find himself without the services of one of the most promising quarterbacks the Cardinal had ever counted on. Marshall (Mike) Stone tried in vain for three years to make the scholastic grade and finally dropped out of school to be married.

Other conference schools, including Michigan and Minnesota look forward to little scholastic trouble with their grid luminaries.

Paint Kitchen Walls

Painted walls are best for the kitchen, as in cold weather the steam rising on wash days dampens the paper much faster than it will dry, and so loosens and causes it to drop off.
